

I WAS THE ONE

Howard James Fyvie © October 2019

I was the One
There at the start
Blowing a kiss
Into the dark

Making the stars
Making the sun
Lighting them up
One by one

Throwing the planets
Into the night
Taking my hands and
Making the light

Watching the Word,
Out of my mouth
Break into song,
Break into life

I was the One,
Filling the void,
Moving the waves
Down on the world

I was the one,
Taking the dust
Making an image
Looking like us

Giving them hands,
Giving them heart,
Giving them choice
To love or to not

Lifting the curtain
over the earth
Watching the world
Now give birth

I was the one
Dreaming of you
Choosing your skin

Picking your hue

Giving you heart
Giving you dreams
Filling you up and
Closing the seams

Open your eyes
Feet on the ground
I couldn't wait to Show you around

But then I saw you
Turning away
Choosing to doubt
What I would say

There was a tear
There was a crack
There was a lie
Holding you back

Why did you go
Where did you hide?
Into in the dark
Brewing inside

You were afraid
Going astray
Telling yourself
It's better this way

I was the one
You didn't choose
You were the one
I wouldn't lose

Would you believe me if I said
I came to raise you from the dead?
I have a plan for your life
I'd love to open your eyes

There's not a moment that passes
When I don't dream from above
Of holding you deep in my arms
D'you know you were made for this love?

I was the one
Holding my breath
Letting it out,
Welcoming death

I was the one,
They crucified,
Heaven was open
There when I died

I was the one,
Behind the stone,
Deep in the dark,
There all alone,

I was the one,
Coming alive,
Breathing again,
Opening eyes

Now I'm the one
There on a throne
All of the glory
Is mine alone

I'm the one
Down on my knees
Praying for you
Just to believe

I'll never stop
Leaving behind
Everything else
Only to find

I am the one
You're looking for
But you are the one
I wanted more
