March 6-8, 2025

14TH ANNUAL LADIES OF VIRTUE FACULTY

Sís. Eríca Bowie

Church of Christ in East Baltimore Baltimore, Maryland

Mistress of Ceremonies

Sís. Sybíl Kníght-Burney Church of Christ in Sandtown Baltimore, Maryland

Mistress of Ceremonies & Friday Evening Performance "All In!"

Sister Sybil Knight-Burney was introduced to the Church of Christ by her former boyfriend, who became her husband after she was baptized into the body of Christ on May 2, 2000. Since that time, she has been active in creating a Christian drama ministry; hosting Ladies' Days; organizing Retreats for Sisters; teaching youth bible classes and vacation bible school. Sister Sybil dedicated over 30 years as a teacher, principal and educational leader and considers it an extra blessing to have completed 10 years as Superintendent of a city school district. A proud HBCU graduate, she received her Bachelors' degree from Howard University and Masters and Doctorate in Education from Nova Southeastern University. Dr. Knight-Burney has received numerous awards for her commitment and service in education.

She now runs her own educational consulting business: Transformational Leadership Agency. However, most importantly, she loves participating in any opportunity to praise God with her husband Kelly and daughter Maryah, and through fellowshipping with the Sisters and having "Pep Rallies" for Jesus! She is also blessed to celebrate Christ as a member of Sandtown Church of Christ in West Baltimore, Maryland and to participate in Bible Study with the Sisters. One of her favorite songs is "This Little Light of Mine" and favorite scripture is Psalm 27:1-2: "The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall, I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid of?" She tries to exemplify a life that is guided by scripture and appreciates the prayers and support of her church family as she continues her journey throughout this life.

Friday Evening Performance "All In!"

Geannetta Bennett is from Niagara Falls, NY and has been a member of the Lord's body for over 50 years. She was married to the late Donald J. Bennett, minister of the Northside church of Christ in Hartford for 25 years. She worships with the Niagara Falls Church of Christ where Bro. Herschel Walker is the minister. Geannetta has presented lectures and performances for Southwestern Christian College, Abilene University, Ohio Valley University, Pepperdine University, the National Minister's Lectureship, the National Minister's Wives Lectureship, Regional and Women's conferences all over the country. She is the co-chair for the Martha's Vineyard Ladies Retreat with her mother, Corrie Walker and sister, Errica Rivera.

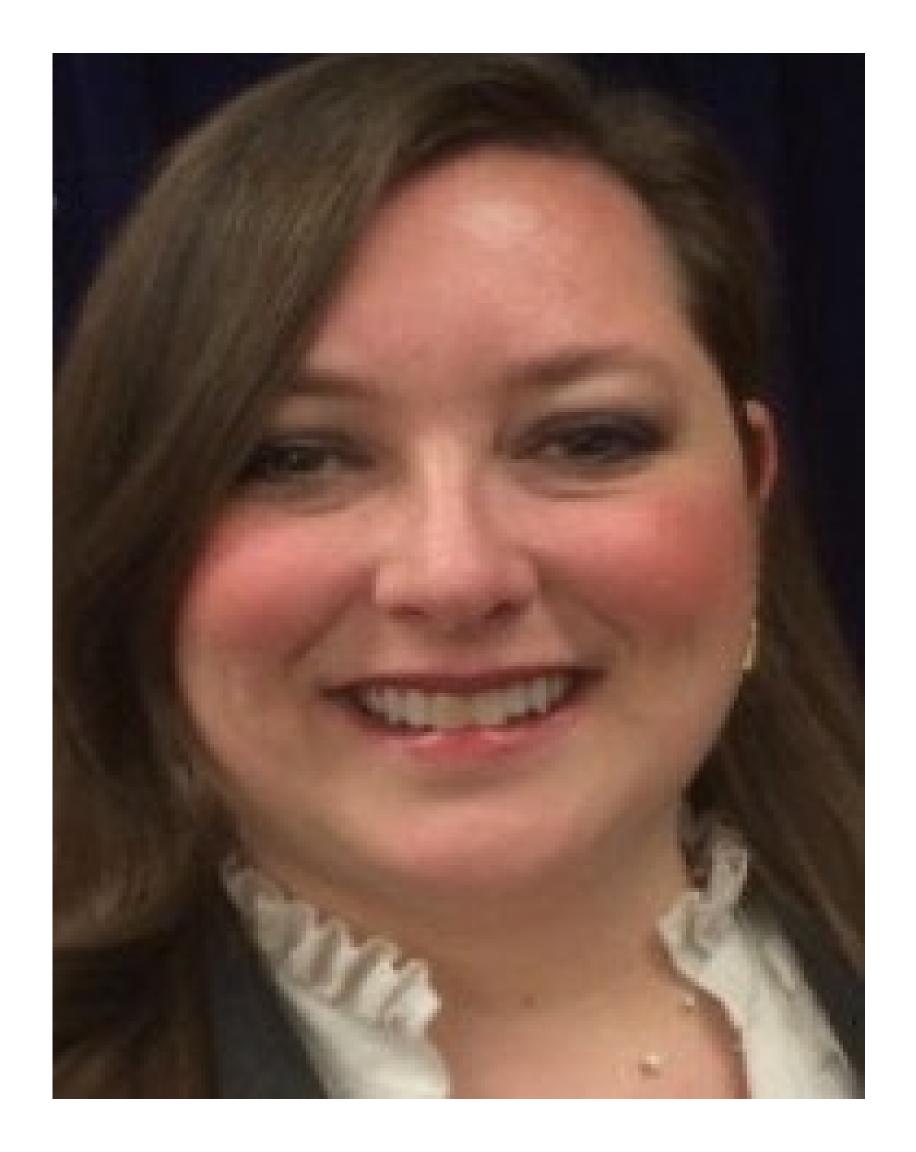

Professionally, she is a life coach, career coach and the Executive Director for her non-profit organization, Heart Work. A personal development and wellness resource agency for clients recovering from emotional trauma. Sister Bennett has written, directed and produced several theater productions throughout the brotherhood. She has performed in independent films and animations. The movies "Diamond Ruff" and "It's Christmas, Dr. Joe!" are currently streaming on Tubi. Giving all praises to God, her greatest hope is to be an instrument for the Master and to use her gifts for His service. Romans 11:29 - For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.

Sís. Amy Brown University Parkway Church of Christ Baltimore, Maryland

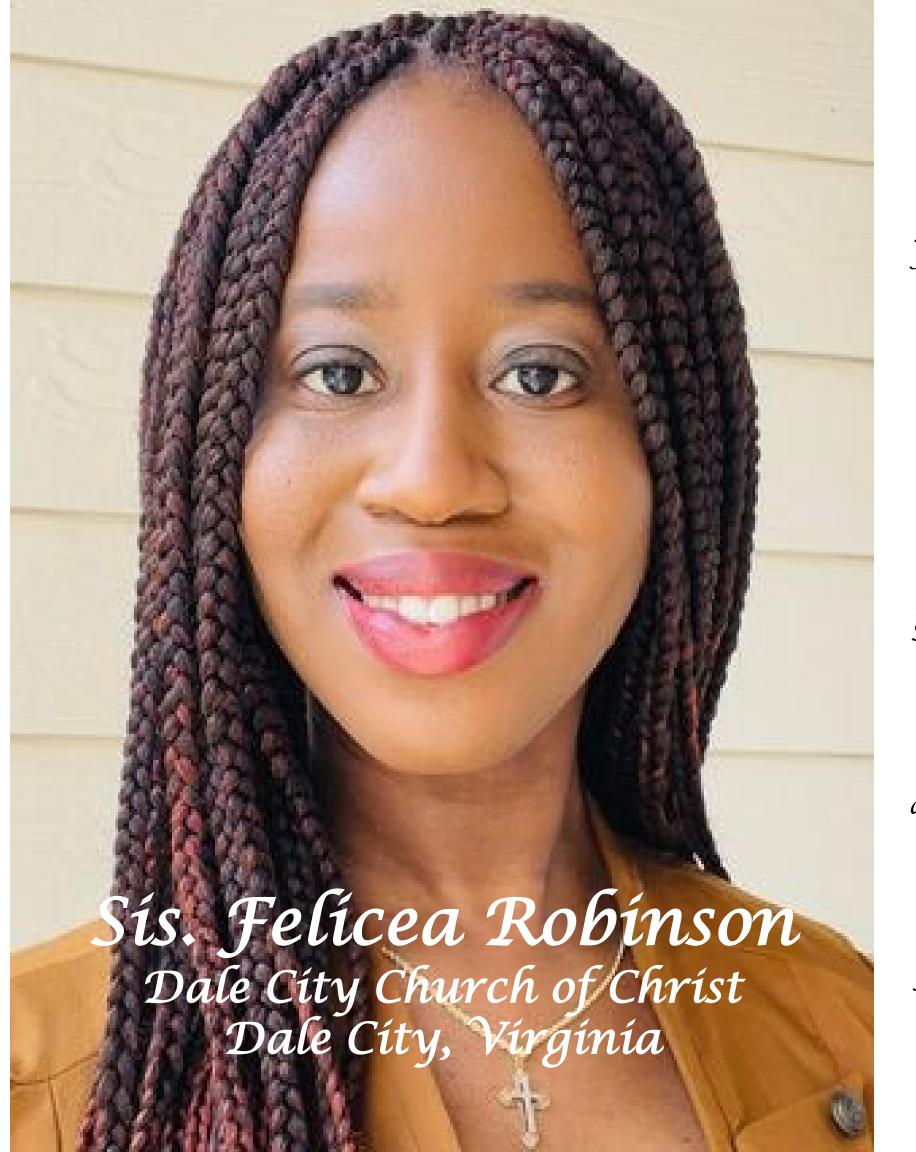

Saturday AM Speaker "Endurance: Don't Sell Out"

Amy Brown and her husband of over 25 years, Brother Jeremy Brown, were both born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee, but did not meet until the spring of 1994 at Lipscomb University. On August 10, 1996, they married at the Central Church of Christ in down-town Nashville. They have two daughters: Holland, who is 19 and studying Music and Philosophy at Lipscomb University, and Morgan, who is 14 and a freshman at Hereford High School. In October 2000, Brother Brown was offered a job in Northern Baltimore County, Maryland where he would work as a commercial insurance broker, and Sister Brown found work as a paralegal in Baltimore City. She then went on to earn her law degree in 2013 at the University of Baltimore School of Law. Since 2014, Sister Brown has worked as an Assistant State's Attorney for the Baltimore City State's Attorney's Office.

Sís. Aba Fuah

Laurel Church of Christ Laurel, Maryland

Youth Purple Pajama Party & Youth Presentation

Nancy Aba Fuah, the daughter of an evangelist and now-retired elder, was baptized into Christ in 1995 in the Gambia, West Africa. She has been a Sunday school teacher since 2001 when she started teaching the teens at the Alabaster church of Christ in Birmingham, Alabama. Aba delights in delving into the scriptures and exploring relevant tangents so if that is your jam she will be right there with you. Aba holds bachelor's degrees in Industrial Distribution and Marketing, and an MBA from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. She has worked in the higher education, health, and nonprofit fields. She is currently a member of the Laurel church of Christ and enjoys singing to make God's praise glorious. One of her favorite scriptures is 1John 5:4: "For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the world - our faith."

Fun fact: Aba was part of an intimate group of sisters from a few congregations in the Birmingham area that met monthly to sharpen each other. We called ourselves LOV (ladies of Virtue). It was a delight to discover a Ladies of Virtue organization in the Maryland area.

Sís. Naomí Wamble

Laurel Church of Christ Laurel, Maryland

Friday 9am Workshop "Art that Inspires"

Naomí Wamble was born and raised in Cotton Plant, Arkansas. She is the second of 11 siblings. Her parents were farmers, so she grew up picking and chopping cotton, taking care of younger siblings, cooking and canning, and all the other duties required on a farm. Her father strongly encouraged all his daughters to get an education so they could take care of themselves. After graduating from Cotton Plant High School, she attended Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Arkansas majoring in Business Education with a minor in Secondary Education.

In 1975 she was baptized at the Eastside church of Christ in Little Rock, Arkansas after growing up as a Baptist. A year later, she married Bro. Carl D. Wamble, whom she had met in college.

She has worked as a bible school teacher in all the places where she has lived, taught bible classes for ladies, and helped plan various church events including Vacation Bible School in Jamaica. She has spoken at Lady Day Programs, worked for Boeing as an administrative assistant in Seattle, Washington, and managed a Thrift Store in San Francisco, California to raise funds for college scholarships. She works as a Substitute Teacher in the Montgomery County Public School System.

Sis. Wamble enjoys traveling, cooking, biking, and spending time with her family, especially her two beautiful grandchildren, Malik and Kimani who live in Twentynine Palms, California with their parents traveling with the U.S. Navy. She thanks God always for her husband of 48 years of marriage and the journey the Lord has blessed them to experience in this Christian life.

Sis. Muriel Lewis

Fríday 9am Workshop "Art that Inspíres"

Muriel Lewis is a devoted member of the Church of Christ who has spent decades nurturing her faith and serving her community. A native of Vineland, New Jersey, Muriel was baptized into the body of Christ in 1974 at the Vineland Church of Christ, where her spiritual journey took root. She served as a Sunday school teacher there, helping to guide young minds in their walk with God.

After retiring in 2007 from the Vineland Housing Authority, Muriel dedicated even more of her time to ministry and community outreach. She has been a faithful member of the Laurel Church of Christ congregation, continuing her walk with Christ alongside her church family.

Muriel's commitment to serving others extends far beyond her local congregation. She has been actively involved in the Senior Ministries at the East Baltimore Church of Christ and the MacArthur Park Church of Christ in San Antonio, Texas, bringing encouragement and joy to her peers. While living in Hawaii, she contributed to the Food Pantry at the Pearl Harbor Church of Christ, supporting efforts to feed those in need.

Throughout her spiritual journey, Muriel has remained steadfast in her devotion, making a lasting impact on every congregation she has been part of, including her time at the Rome Church of Christ. Her unwavering commitment to faith and service continues to inspire those around her.

Francine Ellis retired early in 2023 from a successful career at as a Sr Contract Specialist from CareFirst Blue Cross Blue Shield and is a devoted member of the Laurel Church of Christ congregation. Her journey in Christ began in 1976 when she was baptized at the Vineland Church of Christ, and she has since dedicated her life to serving in various capacities across multiple congregations.

Francine has shared her passion for teaching and nurturing spiritual growth as a Sunday school teacher at the Harrisburg Church of Christ, East Baltimore Church of Christ, PG Church of Christ, and Laurel Church of Christ. Her commitment to Christian education extends to developing educational curricula at the PG Church of Christ and serving on Vacation Bible School Committees at numerous congregations. At Laurel Church of Christ, Francine has also facilitated the Bible Bowl program, inspiring young minds to dive deeper into the Word. A long-time advocate for youth development, Francine served as a camp counselor at Camp Manatawny for several years, fostering Christian values and community among campers. She is also a member of the Committee for Virtue in Christ, a ministry dedicated to providing Christian training and spiritual fortification for women.

Francine's dedication to supporting new believers is evident in her active involvement in the New Convert/New Member Ministry at Laurel Church of Christ, where she helps guide individuals in their spiritual journey. Her unwavering faith, teaching expertise, and passion for service make Francine an inspiring role model and cherished member of the Christian community.

Sís. Jasmíne Shannon

13th Street Church of Christ Washington, District of Columbia

Saturday 10am Workshop "Cross-generational Discipleship: Sisterly/Motherly Love"

Jasmine Shannon was born into Christ at the age of 14 on August 19, 2001, at Gard Avenue Church of Christ in Dayton, Ohio. Her journey in faith began there and has flourished ever since. Jasmine is deeply committed to God's word, work, and purpose. She draws all of her strength from Christ, embodying a spirit of unwavering devotion. Her friends often describe her as a selfless helper, someone who excels at encouraging and affirming others in their faith journeys.

As an active member of 13th Street Church of Christ, Sister Shannon has made significant contributions to her community. She has been a speaker at Ladies Retreats, served as a Prayer Breakfast Chair, co-chaired the Ladies Bible Class, served on the Evangelism Ministry and taught both Ladies and Primary Bible Classes. Her dedication to service is evident in every role she undertakes.

Jasmine is a devoted wife to her husband of 13 years, Melvin Shannon II, and a loving mother to their three children: Laila, Caleb, and Connor. She cherishes quiet moments with Christ and values quality time with her family. Jasmine also enjoys a good laugh, game nights, and listening to audiobooks and podcasts. A proud graduate of Howard University in 2010, Jasmine continues to seek wisdom and growth. Her favorite scripture, Matthew 16:24-26, serves as her guiding light:

"Then Jesus said to His disciples, 'If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. For what good will it do a person if he gains the whole world, but forfeits his soul?"

Jasmine Shannon is not only a sibling, wife, daughter, and mother but also a cherished friend and sister in Christ. Her life and work are a testament to her faith and dedication to serving others in the name of the Lord.

Sister Sophia Booker is the loving wife of Deon Booker, (minister of the Suitland Road church of Christ). They were joined as one on Oct 18, 2018. Sis Booker was born in Saint Catherine, Jamaica where she and her family attended the Independence City church of Christ. When she was seven years old, her family emigrated to the US (Philadelphia, PA) and placed membership with the 63rd & Vine Street Church of Christ (now Overbrook Park). She was baptized at the age of 16 under the leadership of Bro. Willie Rupert (then minister of 63rd & Vine Street Church of Christ) and continued her obedience in Christ. Over the years, Sophia has served as a Sunday school teacher, lead for the circulation/publication department, youth counselor, youth mentor, ladies devotional coordinator and coordinating various activities.

Sophia has also assisted and chaired the planning of several ladies' day events. Sophia labors alongside her husband in the ministry as she continues to work with the education ministry and serves as chair of the ladies' ministry. She attended the Philadelphia High School for Girls and Temple University where she received her Bachelor's degree in Environmental studies. She later went on to receive her Masters in Environmental Management from University of Maryland University Park (now University of Maryland Global Campus). Sophia currently works as a Quality Manager for a global pharmaceutical company within the Research & Development organization.

"Her favorite scripture is 2Timothy 1:7, "For God has not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind"

Sís. Sandy Sykes
LaPlata Church of Christ
LaPlata, Maryland

Saturday 10am Workshop "Conflict Resolution: Strategies for the Faithful"

Sister Sandy Sykes is a devoted member of the La Plata Church of Christ in La Plata, Maryland. She has been married to Brother Eric Sykes for 42 years, and together they have three children—Erica, Iris, and Jaumale (married to Tabetha) as well as several grandchildren. Sister Sykes was baptized into the Lord's church in 1989 and, thanks to her husband's military career, has had the opportunity to work with various congregations over the years. While stationed in Oklahoma, Sister Sykes attended Northwest Church of Christ, where she established the ladies' ministry and collaborated with the youth mínister on volunteer projects such as summer Bible camps. She also served as a mentor in the Leadership Training for Christ (LTC) program, which all her children participated in.

In 1999, the family relocated to Andrews Air Force Base and began worshiping at the Suitland Road Church of Christ. There, Sister Sykes's love for children led her to oversee the nursery for 18 years.

She also chaired and co-chaired the Ladies' Ministry, the retreat committee, and the ladies' prayer breakfasts.

Additionally, she actively participated in Vacation Bible School (VBS) and back-to-school events. Alongside her husband, she engaged in evangelism and door-knocking campaigns.

After moving to La Plata, Sister Sykes collaborated with her daughter-in-law, Tabetha Sykes, to initiate a monthly Ladies' Bible Study class. Her passion for evangelism remains strong as she continues to work alongside her husband, traveling to different congregations to teach seminars. She exemplifies the evangelism model "Teach the Saved to Reach the Lost" by leading classes for women and teaching weekly Bible studies, fulfilling the spirit of Titus 2:3-5. She draws inspiration from the godly women who mentored her in her own faith journey.

In addition to her ministry work, Sister Sykes spent 30 years in retail and ran her own childcare business to support young mothers in her congregation. Her tireless efforts reflect her dedication to raising up the next generation of Christians and serving her community with love and faith.
