

Beaufort Soil & Water Conservation District

Is offering

Environmental Science programs
Free to Schools & Organizations

"Snakes are not Scary", comes with a visit with Checkers the friendly corn snake.

BSWCD was awarded a
Youth Grant for Environmental Education Programs
By Lowcountry RC&D (Resource Conservation & Development)

Our staff provides Interpretive walks & student binoculars may be available.

"The Enviroscape Model" helps students learn about watersheds & what they do on land can effect water quality.

"Beach in a Bag" teaches about local shells and their adaptations & ecosystem.

Please email or call us for Environmental
Science program details.

bswcd@islc.net 843-255-7306

Or visit us at

www.beaufortconservationdistrict.org

January 17, 2018

The "SC Fur Bearers" offers pelts and information on a large collection of native mammals.