DC CHESS LEAGUE

THE DC CHESS LEAGUE

The DC Chess League is a community chess organization open to members of the public around the beltway. Established for over 30 years, the goal is to guarantee public engagement to play chess socially once a month. The Chess League also hosts discussions and chess lessons at various libraries and venues through out Washington, DC

US CHESS

The DC Chess League is the affiliate state chapter for the U.S.Chess Federation. The United States Chess Federation (also known as US Chess or USCF[1]) is the governing body for chess competition in the United States . US Chess administers the official national rating system, awards national titles, sanctions over twenty national championships annually, and publishes two magazines: Chess Life and Chess Life for Kids. The USCF was founded and incorporated in Illinois in 1939, from the merger of two older chess organizations. It is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri

The U.S. Chess Federation appoints an organization in every state to encourage Chess activities in that state. The state chapter affiliate runs state championships and selects players in various categories to attend invationals to represent that state.

CHESS INVITATIONALS

Each year a city championship is held for the K-5, 6-8,9-12, all girls and senior categories seperately. The winner is invited to attend a national tournament to represent the District of Columbia. You must be a DC resident to represent. This year we are expecting to host the events in February to April.
