

Muhammad ﷺ: The Mercy to the Worlds

In Makkah's land a light was born,
A mercy sent, the dark to warn.
A noble heart, so just, so true,
The best example shines in you.
With gentle ways, both firm and kind,
A guiding star for all mankind.

He smiled to lift the hearts in grief,
And taught that kindness brings relief.
The best of people are the ones
Who show their care to daughters, sons.
He walked with orphans, stroked their head,
And to the weak kind mercy spread.

The strong are those who master rage,
Their patience bright from age to age.
He mended shoes, he swept the floor,
And ate with poor, desiring more
To raise the low, to heal the blind,
To teach that love must rule the mind.

The best are those who learn and teach,
Who spread the Qur'an's light to reach.
This world is but a passing shade,
A traveller's path, not home that stayed.
By night he prayed till feet grew sore,
And sought forgiveness evermore.

When hurt with stones, he turned to pray:
"Forgive them, Lord, they've lost the way."
He taught that mercy is the key,
That those who show it taste it free.
Compassion marked his every part,
The noblest trace within his heart.

On Arafat he raised his voice:
"O people, unity's your choice.
The bond of faith shall make you strong,
No race has right to claim it long.
I leave to you Allah's command,
His Book of truth for every land."

And on the Day when all shall stand,
He calls for us with outstretched hand.
“My nation, Lord, O guide their way,
Forgive them on this fateful day.”
His prayer shall shine, his mercy stay,
A light to lead us on the way.

So bless him, angels, evermore,
Muhammad—whom our hearts adore.
The mercy to the worlds was he,
A light for all eternity.

Muhammad ﷺ: The Mercy to the Worlds

In Makkah's land a light was born,
A mercy sent, the dark to warn.
A noble heart, so just, so true,
The best example shines in you.
With gentle ways, both firm and kind,
A guiding star for all mankind.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

He smiled to lift the hearts in grief,
And taught that kindness brings relief.
The best of people are the ones
Who show their care to daughters, sons.
He walked with orphans, stroked their head,
And to the weak kind mercy spread.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

The strong are those who master rage,
Their patience bright from age to age.
He mended shoes, he swept the floor,
And ate with poor, desiring more
To raise the low, to heal the blind,
To teach that love must rule the mind.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

The best are those who learn and teach,
Who spread the Qur'an's light to reach.
This world is but a passing shade,
A traveller's path, not home that stayed.
By night he prayed till feet grew sore,
And sought forgiveness evermore.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

When hurt with stones, he turned to pray:
“Forgive them, Lord, they’ve lost the way.”
He taught that mercy is the key,
That those who show it taste it free.
Compassion marked his every part,
The noblest trace within his heart.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

On Arafat he raised his voice:
“O people, unity’s your choice.
The bond of faith shall make you strong,
No race has right to claim it long.
I leave to you Allah’s command,
His Book of truth for every land.”

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

And on the Day when all shall stand,
He calls for us with outstretched hand.
“My nation, Lord, O guide their way,
Forgive them on this fateful day.”
His prayer shall shine, his mercy stay,
A light to lead us on the way.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?

So bless him, angels, evermore,
Muhammad—whom our hearts adore.
The mercy to the worlds was he,
A light for all eternity.

1. Identify techniques:

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. What does it make you feel?

3. What does it make you think?

4. What does it make you do?
