

2ND ANNUAL

Anita Mester Symposium

Sponsorship opportunities

FEBRUARY 27, 2027 | 10 AM-3 PM

Artstillery | Dallas, Texas

Art, Community, and Connection

Partner with Dallas Art Therapy to help bring clinicians, students, artists, and community members together for a day of learning, personal storytelling, and response art making.

The program features keynote speaker Dr. Teresa Jackson and Truth in Comedy Junior. Sponsorship helps cover event costs, including venue, materials, meals, and event production.

Sponsorship levels

Recognition begins after sponsorship and sponsor materials are confirmed.

All Creativity Sponsor benefits, plus a prominent linked logo on the event webpage, homepage recognition through the event, and acknowledgment in an attendee email; 4 total admissions with lunch and all 4 CE hours.

How to participate

Choose a sponsorship level or contact us to discuss a contribution of goods or services. We will confirm the contribution, recognition details, and next steps by email.

Planning deadlines

FEBRUARY 5, 2027

Sponsorship commitments and logos due

FEBRUARY 12, 2027

Donated items received and service arrangements confirmed

Earlier commitments allow more time for online recognition. Later contributions may be accommodated; recognition will depend on the promotional schedule.

Donations of goods and services

Donation needs include art supplies and paper, photography or video, event production support, and hospitality items. Contact us before purchasing or delivering items so we can confirm the need, quantity, and delivery arrangements.

Recognition for donated goods or services will be agreed upon in advance based on the contribution and event needs. Any raffle or auction items should be discussed separately before acceptance.

Sponsor details to send

Please email your organization or individual name, contact person, preferred sponsorship level or proposed donation, recognition name, website, and a high-resolution logo if applicable.
