(If you are interested in walking, you can skip Chimi Lhakhang & Wangdue this morning and instead take a beautiful hike for about 3hrs from Dochula to Trashigang monastery via Lungchuzekha monastery. Visible from afar, this magical monastery clings to a vertical granite cliff 1,000 feet above the valley floor, defying logic, gravity, and reason in the quest for spiritual enlightenment. It is one of the most amazing and important pieces of architecture in Bhutan. (If for some reason, some of the members wish to skip hike to Taktsang, our Guide and driver can arrange other interesting alternatives for them.) You can also hire pony for the uphill part, till the first view point & cafeteria but you must be able to walk back downhill on return. The steep hike to the first view point or cafeteria (at 2940m/9,650ft) takes between 1-2hrs (ascending about 300m/1,000ft) from the starting point. From here it is another half hour or so to higher spectacular lookout point after ascending another 200m/650ft that puts you eyeball to eyeball with the monastery. From this vantage point, Taktsang seems close enough to touch but it is on the far side of deep chasm and takes a knee breaking descent and ascending of another 40 minutes or so to the monastery. While some will probably not make it all the way to the monastery, but even to get to the first view point is really worth all the effort. Dear Smt. and Shri. Sudharsan,

I am writing this letter to place on record our unstinted appreciation of the arrangements made for the Mukthinath and Kathmandu visits by you and your wife Smt. Sujatha in the trip organised by 'Beyond Boundaries'. It was gratifying to note that at all places of stay, Kathmandu, Pokhara and Jomsom, you had ensured that the group had very comfortable rooms; the food arrangements were excellent and timely; and the service always courteous. The presence of one of your representatives throughout the tour was very welcome as it gave the confidence to the group members that any contingency or unforeseen circumstance would be effectively taken care of. In fact when some of us missed the connecting flight at Kathmandu on 26th, you had quickly provided the alternative that ensured that without any disturbance to the itinerary, the visit could proceed unhindered. Above all, my wife and I were particularly impressed by the unfailing courtesy with which you, Smt. Sujatha and your other staff treated the entire group. Thanks to the excellent arrangements, the Darshan at Mukthinath was memorable and the entire trip left pleasant memories for all of us. Without doubt I could say that 'beyond boundaries' would be our certain choice for any travel in future.

Thanking you and with regards,

Yours Sincerely

(N. Gopalaswami)
