Don is primarily an acoustic guitar player with an original flat-picking style, and is perhaps best known for songs like
The Suzanne E.,
The Atikokan Bear,
and If I was a Fish.

Brian MacKinnon, a retired high school teacher who worked in the inner city of Winnipeg for many years and his wife Margaret Shaw-Mackinnon, writer, have created an Anti-Poverty Program called Y-Not.

Having seen the negative and often tragic impacts of poverty on his students, MacKinnon has dedicated his retirement years to helping make change.

This program is far-reaching, providing not only employment assistance and situational financial help, but also counselling and physical programs to give desperate people hope.

“From her feminist work to her eco poetics, readers and listeners will get a chance to see and hear about the outstanding career of one of Canada’s most influential poets.”

Di will share with us something of her life as a writer, poet and educator, along with a sampling of her work.

She is the 2018-2019 Winnipeg Poet Laureate, Griffin Award-winner and author of many books of fiction, poetry and critical essays.

She is sure to be a delightful and entertaining guest. Di’s newest title, just released is
