StoryTime Room

Starting inside, Thursday, September 2nd 9:45am and 10:45am

Join us inside for songs and stories with your kiddos ages 0-5, every Thursday. Masks are required for all except children age three and under. Please call (204) 482-3522 or email library@gfrl.org for more info.

StoryTime & Kids Unplugged

Registration opens Tuesday, September 14th
Sessions starting October 3rd

With health orders permitting we are allowed to once again have programs inside the Library. Mask use is mandatory. Sign-up for Fall programs in three ways:

In-person,
Over the phone and
NOW ON-LINE!

With your library card, log-in to your library account and search for the program that interests you. Choose from Storytime or Kids Unplugged. Then hold that program spot just as you would hold a book.

Seniors Programming

Starting Friday, September 17th at 1:00pm

The Circle of Friends program will start back in the Library Theatre - we are being extra mindful of the health of all parties attending (patron/staff). Library sponsored transportation is unavailable at this time.

This Month:

Sept 17th - Musical Entertainer, Wayne Wazny

Sept 24th - Historian, Ruth Christie

To attend this program the following criteria must be met:

- Library membership
- Mandatory Mask use
- Double vaccination required

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

On the Move . . .

In an effort to create more space for the Fiction and Non-fiction areas of the Library we have moved a few collections.

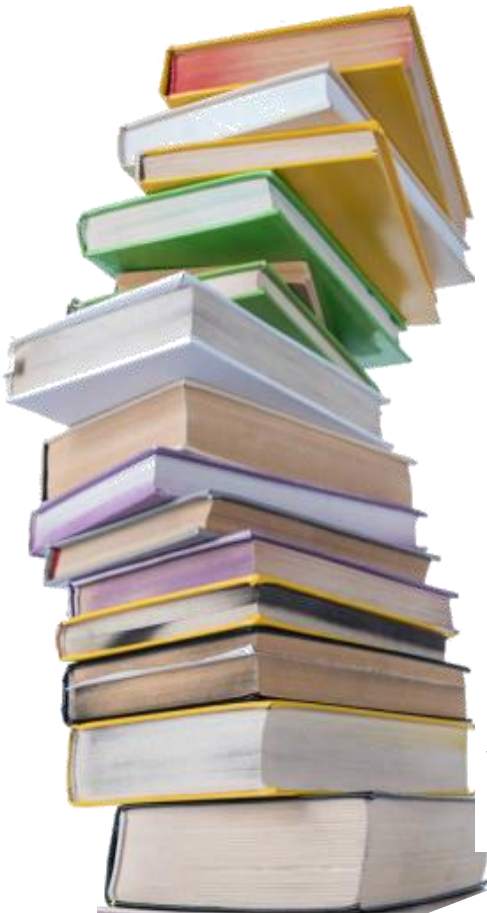

New Items

New titles are now located in front of the Circulation Desk. Find: Fiction, Non-Fiction, Large Print, Inspirational, Inspirational Large Print, Audio/Talking books, Paperbacks, Young Adult and Young Adult Non-Fiction in this new area.

Audio/Talking Books

The Audio/Talking book collection has been relocated to the Lounge area (YA Section) of the Library.

We're in the process of weeding the collection, please be patient while we work through these changes.
