

To the Fallen Heroes of North Rose

The Rose Historical Society is excited to announce a new mural coming in 2024. This mural will be painted by Mural Mania during the winter of 2023 and 2024. The Rose Historical Society is asking for your donations to make this possible. The sacrifices of these two heroes from North Rose gave to their country should not be forgotten. John Thomas and Donald Melvin Putnam were involved in two of the most dangerous missions in the European Theater during WW2. This mural will depict their mission over Romania and Southern France. John and Donald came from the class of 1938 and were from a class of sixteen.

To the Fallen of Ploesti

To you who fly on forever I send that part of me which cannot be separated and is bound to you for all time. I send to you those of our hopes and dreams that never quite came true, the joyous laughter and showery tears of our boyhood, the marvelous mysteries of our adolescence, the glorious strength, and tragic illusions of our young manhood, all these that were and perhaps would have been, I leave in your care, out there in the Blue.

John Riley Kane, Colonel, U.S.A.F. (Ret.)
