MY NOTES

My Insights

My Questions

MONDAY, AUGUST 22

Read Revelation 16—The Last Plagues

1. Who do the plagues come down upon (v2)? Who do they not come down upon?
2. Is God's judgement seen in our world today? When is the last judgement? When is the fate of a person's last judgement day set? Shall we repent now?
3. Describe some natural and man-made disasters that make you think of the plagues on Egypt or these seven bowls of wrath. How do these events remind you of the need to repent of your sins and trust in Jesus Christ alone?

- Prayer: Lord, Your judgement is true and just. Do not turn us away from You but lead us to repentance and Jesus.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23

Read Revelation 17* AND 18—Evil Earthly Authority

1. What historical evil institutions that have been in league with Satan and against Christ's people can you think of that might be like the seven kings? What present day institutions/authorities/ governments?
2. What did the destroyed people of Babylon treasure? See a listing in Chapter 18. Where are our true treasures to be found?
3. There is going to be a great end times battle between God and a dominant world power gathered from the four corners of the earth. But the Revealer repeatedly tells John who wins … who wins? (17:14; 18:20,24; Chapter 19)

- Prayer: Lord, remind us that amongst all the destruction that will come You will pardon and embrace those who trust in Your mercy.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24

Read Revelation 19—Hallelujah! Praise the Lord

1. Should we feel guilty or bad about joining the praise of God when evil is destroyed? Do the great multitude of people in heaven vigorously celebrate the fall of Babylon?
2. Twice in Revelation John falls down to the feet of an angel to begin worship but is told to "not do that" (see also 22:8). How is this a warning to us? Can we get emotionally all wrapped up in things not God?
3. Here in this chapter, we have the feast in heaven that completes the Lord's Supper which was a "foretaste of the feast to come". Who are invited? Who are seated?

- Prayer: Lord, the final victory over evil will be Yours. Let us take comfort in this.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 25

Read Revelation 20—Satan Bound and Defeated

1. What happens to Satan at the last judgement? Does he survive as the ruler of hell as commonly depicted in books and the movies?
2. Whose names are recorded in the book of life (3:5)? Who are the ones who conquer (12:11)?
3. Wow. You have almost finished reading through the New Testament in one year. Celebrate. One or two or three less questions today!

- Prayer: Lord, thank You for giving us Your Word and the freedom and ability to study it. May our learning about you never end. Amen.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26

Read Revelation 21—God Dwells With Man Again

1. What is the climax of all creation and all history depicted in this chapter? How is this a reflection of life in Eden previous to the fall?
2. Do you think the new heaven and earth will be restorations or something completely new? Do you think your resurrected body will be a restoration or something completely new?
3. How can the magnificent future new heaven and new earth that is depicted in Revelation encourage us to rise above this fallen world and hold true to God's promises?

- Prayer: Christ Jesus, Bridegroom of the Church, prepare us for the new heaven and new earth and the great wedding feast that never ends.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27

Read Revelation 22—Jesus, Come Soon

1. Verse 17 is an invitation. Who is sending the invitation and who is the invitation for? What is the entry fee?
2. When you pray "Thy kingdom come" or "Come, Lord Jesus", are you thinking of a present need or of His second coming?
3. Now that you have read all of the book, close your bible and sit back and contemplate. Why do you think Jesus revealed the future to you?

- Prayer: Christ Jesus, come soon so that I may see You and adore You together with all Your saints above. AMEN*
