TAKE A STEP TOWARD A NEW CAREER

Commercial Learner's Permit Day Class -

We offer a curriculum in preparing you to obtain your Commercial Learner's Permit (CLP). Our licensed instructor(s) will teach from the CDL Manual and answer any questions you may have.

Additional offerings:

- Entry Level Driver Training
- Advanced Driver training for specific areas of the industry such as Bulk Tanker and Hazmat.
- Refresher courses are also available for qualified drivers who need recent verifiable experience to re-enter the industry.

This is an ideal class for anyone who may be seeking out their CLP in order to start a program where a CLP may be required beforehand.

CPL Basic Information

Before you can get your commercial driver's license, you'll need to get a commercial learner's permit (CLP). Our first week of class will prepare you to take the required test to earn your commercial learners permit. Once you have completed the classroom training you can schedule an appointment with your local Department of Motor Vehicle office to take the permit tests. There are items you will be required to bring with to qualify for a South Carolina commercial driver's license, you'll need:

Proof of Identity - You can use any of the following documents to prove your identity in South Carolina:

- Birth certificate.
- Valid U.S. passport.
- Certificate of Naturalization.
- Certificate of Citizenship.

If the name in the above documents doesn't match your current one, due to marriage, divorce, or any other reason, you'll also need to bring in the legal documentation proving that your name has been changed.
