The Vineland Historical and Antiquarian Society is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit institution. All dues and donations are tax-deductible according to the full extent of the law.

The governing body of the Vineland Historical and Antiquarian Society is the Board of Trustees, who select and vote on the acceptance of both members and Board candidates. Board members serve three-year terms.

The Trustees are solely responsible for overseeing operations of the Society’s museum and establishing policies. For further information, you may request a copy of the Society’s By-Laws that were approved in June 2014 by contacting the Society at 856-691-1111 or at vinelandhistory@gmail.com.

The Vineland Historical and Antiquarian Society was founded in 1864, just three years after the establishment of Vineland. The Vineland Historical and Antiquarian Society’s museum was constructed in 1910 to house the collections of objects, books, photographs and records that reflect Vineland and South Jersey’s past. Help us continue to preserve the history of our unique community that was once nationally known as a “cultural mecca.”
