

Page thumbnails: Go to specific pages using thumbnail images

- Place the swarm box with nectar, pollen and young bees in a cool dark place (60-70°F.) for at least an hour before adding the grafted cells. Make sure it is sealed tight so no bees escape. During this time the bees will perceive they are queenless and broodless.

