We are fortunate to live in the Morongo Basin, a place steeped in the history of the West – with Native Americans, gold mining, cattle ranching, homesteading, water development and more. We at the Morongo Basin Historical Society are committed to preserving our unique heritage.

Why not join the Morongo Basin Historical Society? Become a member, join as a family. Give your children or grandchildren the gift of History. Support History by joining as a business or organization.

Our members sustain us. Membership dues are a vital component of the budget, enabling us to keep the lights on in the Museum and Research Center and to “Shine the Light on History.”
