3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.

Notes from Fr. SteveUnderstanding the Conclave: An Ancient Tradition of Papal Election*1. The History of the Conclave System:

The conclave, a term derived from the Latin phrase "cum clave" meaning "with a key," refers to the gathering of cardinals in the Vatican to elect a new pope. This tradition dates back to the 13th century when Pope Gregory X established the rules for papal elections to prevent prolonged vacancies and political interference. Over the centuries, these rules have evolved, but the core principle remains: the selection of the successor to St. Peter's throne must be guided by the Holy Spirit through prayerful discernment.

2. How Votes Take Place:

During a conclave, eligible cardinals under the age of 80 gather in seclusion within the Sistine Chapel. Each cardinal writes down their choice for pope on a ballot paper, which is then folded and submitted. If no candidate receives a two-thirds majority in the initial rounds, additional ballots are cast until a consensus is reached. This process emphasizes the importance of prayer, reflection, and the cardinal electors' openness to God's will in selecting the Church's leader.

Conclusion:

As the conclave convenes on May 7th, let us unite in prayer for the cardinals participating, that they may be guided by the Holy Spirit in choosing a shepherd who will faithfully lead the Catholic Church. May God bless this historic conclave with wisdom, discernment, and unity among all the faithful.

Prayer:

"O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a shepherd for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever! Amen

Please remember the parish in your prayers, especially the sick and the suffering, your prayers bring them healing, comfort and peace! God bless you!

May 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each of us has been blessed by God with unique talents, resources, and opportunities. These gifts are not meant to be kept for ourselves but shared generously with others—especially those in greatest need. Embracing our role as stewards of these blessings is one of the most meaningful ways we participate in the work of evangelization: bringing the light of Christ to those searching for it and offering hope and healing to those who suffer.

As we enter this final year of the Eucharistic Revival, we are reminded that the mission of each disciple is to go forth and share the joy of the Gospel and the transformative power of the Eucharist. One important way we can all participate in this mission is by offering both prayerful and material support to the many vibrant ministries of the Archdiocese of Detroit. These ministries serve as our collective response to Jesus' command: "Feed my sheep." By Caring for the physical and spiritual needs of our brothers and sisters, we follow in the footsteps of the Apostles, spreading the Gospel and ministering to the poor, the sick, and the marginalized.

Today, as your pastor, I humbly ask you to reflect on your many blessings and consider how you can support the ministries of our Archdiocese—our spiritual home. Your generosity sustains the vital work of evangelization and outreach in southeast Michigan.

By making a sacrificial gift, you contribute to a legacy of faith and love that extends far beyond our parish. Your support helps ensure the Gospel is proclaimed, the hungry are fed, and the love of Christ is made visible in our world.

This year, I am asking those who are able to consider a sacrificial gift of $400 to the Catholic Services Appeal, No matter the size of your gift, your participation is a powerful witness of your love for Jesus and your commitment to following Him. Our parish goal is $95,000, and reaching it will take the support of every household. Please keep in mind that any shortfall must be covered by our parish's operating budget, which affects all aspects of our community life.

If you have not yet contributed to the CSA, I encourage you to do so this year. Your participation also helps ensure that you are recognized as a registered and active member of our parish within the Archdiocese.

Please join in this mission to bring Christ's message of mercy and compassion to our community and beyond. Our campaign will begin May 4, and will continue until we reach our goal. You may mail your contribution, or bring it to church and place it in the offertory basket.

I thank you in advance for your generous support of the CSA and for your continued faithfulness. May God bless you and your family for your willingness to share your gifts with those in need.

Sincerely yours in Christ,Fr. Steve Koehler*Pastor

Readings for Third Sunday of Easter

Reading I

Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40b-41

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

Reading II

Revelation 5:11-14

I, John looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Gospel

John 21:1-19

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon, Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Canan in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead. When they finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

JWJ CATHOLIC ACADEMY KID'S CORNER

MAY 4, 2025: THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

AFTER JESUS CAME BACK TO LIFE, SOME OF HIS FRIENDS WENT FISHING BUT CAUGHT NOTHING. THEN JESUS SHOWED UP AND TOLD THEM TO TRY AGAIN—THIS TIME THEY CAUGHT LOTS OF FISH! PETER WAS SO HAPPY TO SEE JESUS THAT HE JUMPED INTO THE WATER TO GET TO HIM. JESUS MADE THEM BREAKFAST, THEN ASKED PETER THREE TIMES, “DO YOU LOVE ME?” EACH TIME PETER SAID YES, AND JESUS TOLD HIM TO TAKE CARE OF HIS PEOPLE.

JESUS LOVES US, FORGIVES US, AND GIVES US SPECIAL JOBS TO DO FOR HIM.

Prayer at the Passing of Pope Francis

Dear God,

We thank You for the years of service Pope Francis gave to our Church: his encyclicals, his prayers, his pilgrimages, his work for a brighter tomorrow. May his life and service remind us of our ultimate goal — You and You alone.

Devotions, Explained!

The Rosary

The Rosary, Explained

Christians have used beads to mark the recitation of prayers since ancient times. In the 12th century, the Rosary emerged as a meditative devotion centering on significant moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary. In the words of St. Leo XIII, “there is no more excellent way of praying.”

The Rosary is traditionally attributed to a Marian vision received by St. Dominic de Guzman (1170-1221). Though scholarship on this point is uncertain, the Dominican Order was undoubtedly crucial in establishing and evangelizing the Rosary as a devotional prayer.

Over the centuries, the formula of the devotion eventually took the shape of 50 Hail Marys divided into five “decades,” with each decade focused on a different mystery. The Church has defined the Joyful Mysteries (to be recited on Saturdays and Mondays), the Glorious Mysteries (Sundays and Wednesdays), the Sorrowful Mysteries (Tuesdays and Fridays), and most recently the Luminous Mysteries (to be recited on Thursdays).

GOSPEL MEDITATION

3rd Sunday of Easter

John 21:1-19

I eat breakfast. If I don’t have something substantial, I’m fading by midmorning. Breakfast is my key meal because it sets up my physical wellbeing for the rest of the day.

Spiritually speaking, we need sustenance to get us going. This is true for the Apostles in this Sunday’s remarkable Gospel reading. The risen Jesus makes his third appearance to them in the early morning light and calls, “Come, have breakfast” (John 21:12). The exhausted and cold fishermen sit, and he feeds them bread and fish as the dawn breaks. They are overwhelmed by his presence to the point of awestruck silence. As they eat, their bodies and their hearts come alive. Once refreshed by their morning meal, they will be ready to feed others — indeed, the whole world — with the love of the risen Jesus. But first, they need breakfast from him.

Do you realize how essential early morning prayer is? Jesus desires to refresh us every morning with his word of love, with his grace-filled presence. This week, hear Jesus calling to you: “Come, have breakfast!” Embrace some form of spiritual, meditative practice each morning for spiritual strength to get you going.

— Father John Muir

“Whenever we take a step towards Jesus, we come to realize that He is already there, waiting for us with open arms.”

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Gifts in Disguise

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking?

I won't call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn't our size or a gift card to a store where we don't shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it's all about the gesture.

Suffering is a lot like that — the gift you never asked for, and don't really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don't recognize it for what it can be. We don't appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace.

What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit?

If I go back and look at the worst gifts I've ever gotten, chances are that I didn't like them because I didn't know what to do with them — they were more fitted for someone else's interests, someone else's life. It's the same with suffering. We're tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn't fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become.

Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy.

HEAVENLY FATHER,

We thank you for the gift of the Church in Southeast Michigan.

We ask that just as Jesus instructed Saint Peter to tend and feed the sheep, our love for him may extend to others during this Missionary Year of the National Eucharistic Revival.

May the grace of the Holy Spirit guide us as we hear the words "Follow me" and joyfully give witness to the hope that flows from the Body and Blood of Jesus, whom we truly receive in the Most Holy Eucharist.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

AMEN.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

May 5, 2019
3rd Sunday of Easter

I am struck by how Jesus addresses the disciples in the 21st chapter of John. They have been fishing all night, and when the dawn comes, Jesus asks, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They hadn't caught a thing, so he tells them what to do to finally fill their nets. These children thought they knew best, but they couldn't get the job done until they listened to Jesus. Like a child who needs a parent, these early followers of Jesus were learning that real maturity of faith requires trusting in and listening to the Teacher.

The stewardship way of life demands of us a certain maturity of discipleship. Just as a child is not yet ready to be a parent, an immature disciple may not yet be ready to sacrifice regardless of the cost or understand the true value of his generosity. So every day, we are challenged and called to respond, sometimes even with little cost to ourselves. But each step, no matter how small, brings with it growth. We are growing not only in maturity, but in the ability to trust in God and how to listen for the call as well.

How mature are you in your faith? How much trust do you have in Jesus Christ? How often do you pause to listen to the instructions of your Teacher? The night is now over, and the dawn is upon you. Reflect on the visible fruit of your stewardship, and then listen for the words of Jesus.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Prayer for Those Serving in the Military

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families for their selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need.
 Amen.

Adoration Chapel

In the documents of the Second Vatican Council, the Church Fathers describe the Eucharist as: "The source and summit of the Christian life. The term "Eucharist" originates in the Greek word Eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving.

"Take; this is my body" Mark 14:22

1. The real presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true and substantial.
2. "It is called the Eucharist because it is an action of thanksgiving to God." (CCC. No. 1328)
3. "Jesus awaits us in the sacrament of love." (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cene, no. 3)
4. Eucharist makes the one present sacrifice of Christ the Savior." (CCC, no. 1330)

If you would like to take the opportunity to be still and listen to God (without worldly interruptions), we have a need for almost every hour to have a second adorer, thereby making less the need for a substitute. It is a sacrifice being Catholic in our world today, you need contemplation and the grace to make you holy. Please call Mary Peterson to sign up at (586)979-1469 or (586)738-1154.

Remember in Your Prayers
ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father,
In the face of confusion and concern
Impart to us the calm of Your presence.
In You allow us to find hope and healing.
Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.
Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love.
Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.
We ask this in Your Name.
Amen
