19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter. - Mt 14:30-31

Notes from Fr. Steve

Parents, grandparents and Godparents are the first teacher of the Catholic faith. Helping children grow in their Catholic faith begins with learning the basics. Here are five important truths every Catholic child should know:

1. God Loves You

God created you, knows you by name, and loves you unconditionally. You are never alone because God is always with you.

2. Jesus is Our Savior

Jesus is the Son of God who came to teach us, died on the cross for our sins, and rose from the dead so that we may have eternal life.

3. Prayer Is Talking with God

Prayer is simply speaking and listening to God. Every child should know basic prayers such as the Sign of the Cross, the Our Father, the Hail Mary, and the Glory Be.

4. The Eucharist Is Jesus Truly Present

At every Mass, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. Receiving Jesus in Holy Communion is one of the greatest gifts of our Catholic faith.

5. Love God and Love Others

Jesus taught us that the greatest commandments are to love God with all our hearts and to love our neighbors as ourselves. We live this out through kindness, forgiveness, honest and mercy.

A Good Reminder for Adult Christians

These five truths are not only for children—they are the foundation of the Christian life for adults as well. Returning to these simple but profound teachings can renew our faith, strengthen our families, and inspire us to be faithful witnesses of Christ each day.

“Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.”—
Proverbs 22:6

Please remember the parish in your prayers, especially the sick and the suffering, your prayers bring them healing, comfort and peace! Have a blessed week!

Fr. Steve

Almighty ever-living God,

we know that all gifts come from you.

As good stewards we return them to you with heartfelt charity and gratitude.

May our service of prayer joyfully align our hearts to follow your will,

so that our talents may bring hope for the renewal of Christ's mission in our Archdiocese.

May the Holy Spirit guide us
to generously entrust our financial treasures
for the good of rebuilding the Church, and to look toward our true treasure

in heaven.

Amen.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

Saint Anne, pray for us.

Blessed Solanus Casey, pray for us.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 9, 2026

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 14:22-33

As a young, newly ordained priest, I admired a senior priest who was gifted, beloved, and had changed countless lives. But soon I learned that he had fallen in catastrophic and destructive ways. The painful juxtaposition of good and evil was complex to process. How could someone so seemingly good also be so broken and deceptive? It forced me to confront a sobering truth: leadership in the Church is no guarantee against weakness or sin.

Peter teaches that truth in this week's Gospel. When he sees Jesus walking on the sea, Peter does what leaders do. He goes first. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." But when he sees how strong the wind is, he becomes frightened and, beginning to sink, cries out, "Lord, save me." Immediately, Jesus stretches out his hand and catches him. St. Thomas Aquinas observes that Peter overcomes the greater danger of the waves but falters before the lesser threat of the wind. This is the paradox leaders often face. It is not always the great trials that undo us, but the smaller, quieter temptations, such as subtle fears and compromises, that lead us to sink.

The good news is that Jesus does not abandon Peter. He saves him before it is too late. Our frail humanity lives within a rhythm of grace, risk, failure, and mercy. Jesus helps Peter overcome both the obvious and hidden sources of fear, and he promises to do the same for us. So, let us pray for all, especially our spiritual leaders.

Everyday Stewardship

Being Human is to Doubt

Humans doubt. It's what we do. We doubt ourselves and we doubt others.

Before any of us say anything about Peter's doubting the words of Jesus that told him he could get out of his boat and walk on water, we need to get real with ourselves: How would I respond in the same situation? I remember when I was child taking swimming lessons. One day I simply tightened up my muscles and sank. The lifeguard pulled me up and asked what happened. I said I did not know. The truth is that I was sinking under the weight of my own doubt. I did not believe I could do what clearly, I was told I could. That was only in five feet of water in a pool! Now that I'm older, I can look back and laugh. But an adult, the swimming pool is life, and I would be lying if I said that there are no longer times I find myself sinking due to new doubts.

Much of our doubt comes about because of a lack of trust in God. We place our trust in material things, wealth, or imperfect people instead of the One who is worthy of our trust 100 percent of the time. Our stewardship is often hampered by our doubt that God will provide all that we need. If I give more, I may not have enough to survive! When we place all our trust in God, not only do we find that we have been given all we need – our doubt that cause us to sink in the pool of life fades away. We don't suddenly become perfect in our trust, and there will be times when we find ourselves with concerns again. However, it is in those moments we find that He is still there, speaking the words we need to hear: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

Devotions, Explained! House Blessing

House Blessing, Explained!

Catholics who move to a new place of residence often wish to have their dwelling blessed, to call the favor and help of God upon all those who live in the house and all those who will enter it.

The Roman Ritual (Book of Blessings) provides two formats for house blessings: one during the Easter or Christmas season (specifically for the Epiphany) and one for Ordinary Time. Those who live in the home must be present for a house to be blessed. A priest, deacon or lay person can administer the blessing, although if a lay person does so they must use the rites accorded to lay ministers in the Roman Ritual. A house blessing includes Scripture readings, intercessions and a prayer of blessing.

PRAYER – FOR EVERYDAY AND EVERYBODYPrayer in Faith in Trial

Dear God,

In this time of difficulty, be with me.
When I don't feel Your presence or hear Your voice, sustain me.
When I don't see the path ahead, guide me.
When I don't know the next step, support me.
In every day and in every moment, be my strength.

Amen.

Virtues, Explained!
Serenity

Mini Explanation

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves. It is the feeling we find when we are reconciled to God's mercy.

Serenity, Explained!

The word "serenity" is only found once in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: in the section describing the effects of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, quoting the Council of Trent when it declared that a good confession "is usually followed by peace and serenity of conscience." (CCC 1468)

This may give the impression that serenity is not a foremost Catholic virtue, but the succinctness of the Catechism's reference is actually proof of serenity's importance.

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves.

That the Catechism links it exclusively with reconciliation to God tells us all we need to know about this virtue. Where can we find calm in turmoil, stillness in storm? Where can we find serenity?

There is only one place: the merciful embrace of God in His sacraments.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD
IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Looking for God

What do we think when we see Jesus coming to save us?

The first thing the Apostles scream is "Ghost!" when they catch sight of Jesus walking towards them on water. That always makes me laugh. After all they have witnessed thus far as the companions of the Messiah, they see someone walking on water and they still react like extras in a bad episode of Scooby-Doo.

We are always more quick to believe a bad thing than a good thing. We can easily believe gossip and hearsay about a friend, but we fear being taken for a fool when it comes to faith. We would rather look cynical than stupid.

"Save me, God, for the waters have reached my neck," reads Psalm 69. "My eyes fail, from looking for my God."

I think back on my life, on all the various ways that God has rescued me from slipping beneath the surface. Rarely did it ever occur to me, in the midst of it, that I was being rescued. In fact, I usually thought I was being held underwater. Did I hear His voice directing me, or did I only hear my own despairing? "Save me, God." Was I looking for Him, or were my eyes shut in fear? "My eyes fail, from looking for my God."

It's never until after the fact — sometimes years after, or decades — that we see things clearly. That we see Christ in the situation, making his way toward us, hand outstretched.

Marilyn's Heart Smart Angel Food Fruit Pudding

1/2 angel food cake
1 (6 oz.) pkg. instant vanilla fat free pudding
2 3/4 c. skim milk (for pudding)
1 pt. fresh strawberries, washed and sliced
1 (8 oz.) can pineapple chunks, drained
8 oz. can apricots, drained
8 oz. can sliced peaches, drained
1 (8 oz.) ctn. fat free whipped topping

Cut up cake into bite size pieces. Make pudding according to package directions using skim milk. Mix with cake and set aside. Set a small amount of the strawberries aside for the top. Mix remaining strawberries with the other fruits and set aside.

In a large bowl, place half of the pudding mixture. Layer half fruit mixture on top of the pudding mixture. Top with half of the whipped topping. Repeat layers and garnish with the strawberries that have been set aside. Best if chilled well before serving. To make this "aesthetically pleasing to the eye," use a large glass bowl, positioning strawberries on the outside. The red is a beautiful contrast when finished.

Option: Use sugar free pudding.

Adoration Chapel

In the documents of the Second Vatican Council, the Church Fathers describe the Eucharist as: "The source and summit of the Christian life. The term "Eucharist" originates in the Greek word Eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving.

"Take; this is my body" Mark 14:22

1. The real presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true and substantial.
2. "It is called the Eucharist because it is an action of thanksgiving to God." (CCC. No. 1328)
3. "Jesus awaits us in the sacrament of love." (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cene, no. 3)
4. Eucharist makes the one present sacrifice of Christ the Savior." (CCC, no. 1330)

If you would like to take the opportunity to be still and listen to God (without worldly interruptions), we have a need for almost every hour to have a second adorer, thereby making less the need for a substitute. It is a sacrifice being Catholic in our world today, you need contemplation and the grace to make you holy. Please call Mary Peterson to sign up at (586)979-1469 or (586)738-1154.
