

Father's DAY

Defend, O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, the chosen children of Jesus Christ. —Pope Leo XIII

St. Rene Goupil Catholic Community

Notes from Fr. Steve

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity, reflecting deeply on the profound mystery of our faith. As Jesus reminds us in John 16:12-15, the Spirit of truth guides us into all truth, revealing the interconnectedness of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In celebrating the mystery of the Holy Trinity, we take our mission forward as we celebrate our faith and share it with those around us.

The Holy Trinity is not merely a doctrine to be understood but a mystery to be lived. It calls us to embrace the unity in diversity, reflecting the divine community of love in our own lives. Just as Jesus entrusted his disciples to spread the Gospel, so too are we called to carry this message forward in our daily lives.

Throughout the week, let us embody the teachings of the Holy Trinity by:

- Living in Unity: Embracing diversity and fostering harmony in our communities.
- Sharing Love: Practicing compassion and forgiveness towards others.
- Being Witnesses: Boldly Sharing our faith through both our words and actions.

As we celebrate this feast, let us pray for the grace to be true disciples of the Trinity, bringing God's love and mercy to all we encounter. May our lives reflect the unity and love of the Holy Trinity, inspiring others to seek the truth and embrace the faith.

"God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and Spirit of sanctification made known to all the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory." Amen. Collect from Mass of the Holy Trinity.

On behalf, of the entire parish community. I would like to offer all of the Father's of our parish a Happy Father's Day! God bless you for all you do to "father" the children God has blessed you with.

Our CSA Campaign continues on! I encourage everyone to make their CSA pledge asap, your sacrifice continues the mission of the Church in Southeast Michigan.

Please remember the parish in your prayers, especially the sick and the suffering. Your prayers bring them healing, comfort and peace! God bless us, Father, Son and Holy Spirit!

The Most Holy Trinity

The Most Holy Trinity—Three Persons in one God—fittingly links today's Scripture readings. The Book of Proverbs speaks of "Wisdom," which we identify as the Holy Spirit. St. Paul's Letter to the Roman community refers to aspects of the Trinity that fortify us and offer us hope. In the Gospel from St. John, Jesus stresses that His disciples will fully comprehend all truth when they obtain the "Spirit of Truth." Christian stewards remember the Trinity when they make the sign of the cross: In the name of the Father, our loving Creator; and of the Son, our loving Redeemer; and of the Holy Spirit, our loving Transformer. Amen. Allow this holy act solidify your witness as a Christian, deepen your personal relationship with Christ, and move you to follow his directives to love God and neighbor.

THINKING OF YOU ON FATHER'S DAY,
AND OFFERING A prayer
THAT GOD

WILL KEEP YOU ALWAYS,
IN THE shelter OF HIS CARE—
MAY HE GUIDE YOU IN YOUR DAILY WORK,
BLESS EVERYTHING YOU DO
AND GRANT YOU ALL THOSE special JOYS
THAT MEAN THE MOST TO YOU.

Thank you to the parishioners who have already pledged their support. The ministries, programs and services funded by the Catholic Services Appeal help in our parish and throughout southeast Michigan and beyond. If you are still prayerfully considering your sacrificial gift to this year's CSA, you may send your completed pledge card in the pre-addressed envelope you received in the mail. You are also encouraged to make your pledge and gift to our parish's campaign online at GiveCSA.org or you can scan the QR code and donate to CSA, just make sure to put CSA in the note section when you submit your donation online.

Readings for The Most Holy Trinity

Reading I Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God: "The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world. "When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

Reading II Romans 5:1-5

Brothers and Sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Up to the Job

Have you ever had a job for which you didn't feel qualified? I think we all have, whether it was a paying gig or not. A lot of us parents often feel in awe of the magnitude of that role and lose sleep worrying that we made the wrong decision in one situation or a bad call in another. Some of us feel intimidated by what our communities need from us, on the parish level or in our personal relationships. Or maybe we are simply dreading a task that seems too big, too overwhelming — that necessary basement cleanout, or the weekly organization of family schedules.

When we don't feel qualified, we don't want to do the work. We get stuck in our own fear. That's the birthplace of procrastination, self-doubt and bitterness. When we look inward at our own abilities, we can only see all the traits that aren't there. The intelligence, the dexterity, the ambition — whatever it is we lack, we get stuck on it.

I've got good news and bad news. I'll start with the bad news: none of us are qualified for the call of discipleship. We simply aren't. We don't have the love or grace or strength to get the job done.

Now I'll give you the good news: God knows this, and He doesn't care. Stewardship does not insist that we possess every good quality — no, as a way of life, stewardship recognizes that we lack so many qualities. But it shows us where to find the love and grace and strength we need. Stewardship does not demand that we know every answer; it merely reminds us who to ask when we don't.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Most Holy Trinity

John 16:12-15

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.
You are our model of a loving father.
When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day
and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.
Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.
We ask all this in the name of Jesus.
Amen.

HEAVENLY FATHER,

We thank you for the gift of the Church in Southeast Michigan.

We ask that just as Jesus instructed Saint Peter to tend and feed the sheep, our love for him may extend to others during this Missionary Year of the National Eucharistic Revival.

May the grace of the Holy Spirit guide us as we hear the words "Follow me" and joyfully give witness to the hope that flows from the Body and Blood of Jesus, whom we truly receive in the Most Holy Eucharist.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

AMEN.

Father's Day Prayer

Heavenly Father,
You entrusted Your Son Jesus, the Child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly Father. Bless all Fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to You for love and salvation, through Jesus Christ, our Rock and Defender, in union with the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
St. Joseph,
Pray for all of our Fathers.
Amen.

Adoration Chapel

In the documents of the Second Vatican Council, the Church Fathers describe the Eucharist as: "The source and summit of the Christian life. The term "Eucharist" originates in the Greek word Eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving.

"Take; this is my body" Mark 14:22

1. The real presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true and substantial.
2. "It is called the Eucharist because it is an action of thanksgiving to God." (CCC. No. 1328)
3. "Jesus awaits us in the sacrament of love." (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cene, no. 3)
4. Eucharist makes the one present sacrifice of Christ the Savior." (CCC, no. 1330)

If you would like to take the opportunity to be still and listen to God (without worldly interruptions), we have a need for almost every hour to have a second adorer, thereby making less the need for a substitute. It is a sacrifice being Catholic in our world today, you need contemplation and the grace to make you holy. Please call Mary Peterson to sign up at (586)979-1469 or (586)738-1154.
