Day 3: Tuesday, November 28, 2023 - Marrakech City Tour

7 am – 9 am – Enjoy breakfast at leisure.

9:30 am – Meet our local guide in the lobby and today unearth the secrets of Marrakech, beginning in the medina, the old walled section of town and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

This thousand-year-old city was long a political, economic and cultural center. You will first stand by the Koutoubia Mosque with its 282 ft minaret, an architectural landmark dating back to the late 12th century.

Your next stop is Bahia Palace, considered as one of the grand palaces of the Moroccan city of Marrakech, or what is called the Red City. Created by Minister Ahmed bin Musa, in the 19th century, to commemorate the name of his wife, “Bahia”, and today it is an artistic masterpiece dating from the splendor of Moroccan architecture of Andalusian character which overflows with its civilizational manifestations, in particular what you tell about the secrets of ancient history.

Continue to Dar El Bacha Museum, built in 1910 and was the residence of Thami El Glaoui, named Pasha of Marrakech by Sultan Moulay Youssef in 1912. It is one of the medina's finest examples of Riad architecture, dripping with Moroccan Zellige (colorful geometric tilework), intricate white plasterwork and heavy carved cedar-wood lintels.

Continue to the Jewish quarter to visit Laazama Synagogue in the Mellah, probably the oldest existing synagogue still in use every day in the entire Diaspora, then Miara Jewish cemetery the largest Jewish cemetery in Morocco and is characterized by white-washed tombs and sandy graves.

Later you visit Djemaa el-Fna, Marrakech's main square, which is filled with orange juice stalls and vendors, along with fire-eaters, mime artists, snake-charmers and street musicians performing at every turn. You may also take the opportunity to explore the city's fabled, labyrinthine souks, their bustling alleyways brimming with all manner of wares.

After your tour, return to the hotel and freshen up.

7:30 pm – Depart the hotel and head to a Bahia Moroccan restaurant for dinner.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight: Longue Vie

Day 4: Wednesday, November 29, 2023, Marrakech

7 am – 9 am – Enjoy breakfast at leisure.

10 am - Head to Amal Center 'cooperative to enjoy a Moroccan cooking class, you will learn the secrets to making the country's most celebrate dish. First you will head to the garden with a recipes card to pick up the herbs then you will join others to make traditional Moroccan dishes such Tajine, you will able to prepare one type of Tajine for every two-to-three people during the cooking class. In Moroccan tradition, these Tajines are slow-cooked over charcoal and eaten as a group. Your Tajine will be plenty of food for you and the other members of your party to enjoy as lunch.

2:30 pm – Visit Majorelle Garden & Berber and Yves Saint Laurent Museum

We take time for a stroll in the famous garden created by the orientalist painter Jacques Majorelle in 1920's.

The Garden houses a collection of plants from the four corners of the world which flourish amidst elegant ornamental ponds and an Art Deco villa of which the special shade of bold cobalt blue is named after the artist, 'Majorelle blue'. The garden hosts also more than 15 bird species that are endemic to North Africa and has an amazing collection of cacti. This garden has been owned by the French designer, Yves Saint Laurent. We will visit the beautifully designed Berber Museum displaying Yves Saint Laurent's personal collection of Berber antiques to learn some fascinating facts about the Berbers of Morocco and admire these marvelous treasures of local antiques.

4 pm - Traditional Hammam and massage

Get ready for a Hammam inside a traditional Riad. You will be immersed in total relaxation listening to your own body in reconciliation with yourself in an atmosphere filled with water, oils, essences, and perfumes. Enjoy 30 minutes scrub with black soap or spices for relaxation and eliminating toxins from the body. After the Hammam bath, you will visit the massage place where you will enjoy a tonic massage of the Moroccan tradition that helps to eliminate tensions in order to regain energy and vitality.

Return to your hotel and freshen up then you will be taken to a local restaurant for dinner. Return to the hotel.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight: Longue Vie, Standard room

Day 5: Thursday, November 30, 2023 - Marrakech – Ourzazate - Dades

7 am – 8 am – Enjoy breakfast at leisure.

8:30 am - Today you depart Marrakech early and head into the High Atlas Mountains.

Our route follows the same one caravans used centuries ago, to bring into Marrakech gold and precious wood from the other side of the ocean of sand, the Sahara.

You will be crossing Tizi n Tichka pass, at 2260 meters high. Once over the pass you will get amazing panoramic views of the Atlas Mountains and the houses of its indigenous villages.

Stop at Ait Benhaddou, dubbed a UNESCO World Heritage Site and home of the region's most exotic kasbahs, where structures all but defy the laws of gravity as they perch upon the steep slope. Some of these buildings have been featured in films, including Lawrence of Arabia and Gladiator.

Continue to Ouarzazate, a city originally built as a French garrison in the 1920s. Today, the city is a regional trade center, known for its pottery and carpets. See the Taourirt Kasbah, which now consists of simple clay houses and crenellated towers that are beautifully decorated with geometric motifs.

We then head to Dades, to enjoy a walk through the famous Dades Gorges, that lie between the Atlas Mountains and the Jbel Saghro of the Anti- Atlas Mountain. For a better view of the huge Dades canyon we shall head to Café & Restaurant Timzzillite.

Our journey ends as we reach Xaluca dades our accommodation for the night. Check-in freshen up then enjoy dinner in the main restaurant.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight: Xaluca Dades

Xaluca Dades Hotel

At an altitude of 1612 meters, surrounded by majestic mountains at the very spine of the Atlas range, whose impressive ravines sketch out to the winds in the sky, the Xaluca Dades Hotel, enjoys a panoramic view of the Dades Valley, sprinkled with friendly Berber villages and snowy peaks. Hotel Xaluca Dades offers 106 beautifully designed, welcoming rooms, exquisitely decorated with materials from different African countries. It is a real paradise in the middle of the mountains.

Day 6: Thursday, December 1, 2023 - Tinghir – Erfoud - Merzouga

6:30 am – 7:30 am – Breakfast & checkout.

8 am - Back on the road, our first stop today is Tinerhir (Tinghir), with its extensive palm grove, the ksours built into the rocky hills above it and its mysterious decaying Jewish quarter. Tinghir has been for generations a stop for nomadic Berber tribes travelling from the mountains north of it towards the desert during the winter months. A rather inconspicuous hidden gem is the 19th century adobe mosque nested within the old crumbling ksour, a heaven for photography enthusiasts.

Todra Gorges, lie only 15 km from Tinghir, presenting an arresting spectacle with its crystal-clear river emerging from it, its huge walls changing color to magical effect as the day unfolds. Its 300 meters (1000 feet) high walls are home to more than 150 bolted routes and at any time of day you can catch a glimpse of someone rock climbing his way up the gigantic walls.

Our drive continues to Merzouga passing by Erfoud and Rissani. In Erfoud we may stop for a visit at Musee des Oasis (optional) if time allows. Rissani used to serve as last stop on the great caravan routes south and gold and slave auctions took place here as late as 1800's. Before it, the caravan trade and the most important city in Morocco was Sijilmassa, the ruins of which lie opposite Rissani. From its gates, Ibn Battuta and Leo Africanus left Morocco to embark on their illustrious journeys across the Sahara into other African countries.

In Erfoud we shall switch vehicles and board 4WD vehicles to traverse the spectacular dunes of Erg Chebbi which were featured in the film Lawrence of Arabia.

Hold on tight as these boys love to race across the dunes. Before arriving to the camp, you will get onto the back of a camel and venture into the desert to witness one of the most beautiful sunsets of your lifetime. Traverse the golden sands of the Sahara until you reach the perfect spot for one of the nature's greatest shows. As another day comes to an end, watch the sky come to life with a fiery glow, and the rays playfully changing colors of the endless dunes surrounding you. Arrive your camp, freshen up then enjoy dinner in the main tent. Your evening gastronomic experience combines the best of Moroccan cuisine with desert tradition.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight: Merzouga Luxury Camp

Located strategically in the middle of the big dunes of the Erg Chebbi Desert, Merzouga luxury desert camps also offers a spectacular nomadic experience. It is especially unique because of the 'KHaimas', which are traditional tents made of camel skin typically used by nomadic people.

Luxury tents are equipped with private bathrooms.

Day 7: Friday, December 2, 2023 - Merzouga

Early this morning, walk among the majestic dunes and witness the magnificent sunrise. To see Merzouga, no one ever regretted getting up at 5:30 am to witness the unique sunrise: admire and watch the pink disc of the sun appearing over the gigantic dunes of Merzouga.

7 am – 8:30 am - Breakfast at the camp.

9 am – Today we have a full-day excursion in 4x4 vehicles through the Erg Chebbi; visit the villages in the surroundings area for a closer contact with the Berber culture. Travel to Tissardmine, a serene village where you'll enjoy a lunch in a local restaurant, on you will enjoy a mint tea with a nomad family to get an idea about the nomadic life of Berber, Then head to Khamlia, a small village nearby Merzouga main town. The uniqueness of this village stands at the fact that all its inhabitants are black Africans but speak Berber as their mother tongue. They were taken from Mali, Sudan and Senegal, and displaced to Morocco centuries ago. The inhabitants brought with them the folkloric aspect of their life as embodied through the Gnawa music. You'll attend the show in Gnawa Village without prior notice, as all the bands are ready to perform for new visitors.

Optional Excursions

Buggy on the dunes

Picnic in an oasis

Quads on the dunes

In the evening, return to the camp. Enjoy dinner then retire for the night.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Overnight: Merzouga Luxury Camp

Day 8: Saturday, December 3, 2023 - Merzouga – Midelt - Fes

If you missed yesterday's sunrise today is your chance.

7 am – 8:30 am – Breakfast at the camp & check out.

8 am - We return to Erfoud switch vehicles and then journey through the beautiful Middle Atlas Mountain range, with its thick woods filled with lush cedar and oak trees enroute to Fez. Along the way, you'll pass through Ifrane, known as little Switzerland, a picturesque ski town, and Azrou, known for its cedar wood handicrafts.

As you enter Fez, there is a breathtaking view of the ancient city from a hill overlooking the medina.

Check into your hotel. Marriott Jnan Palace

Day 9: Sunday, December 4, 2023 – Fes City Tour

7 am - 8:30 – Breakfast at the hotel.

9 am - Today you take a step back in time to the Middle Ages when you visit one of the most imperial, timeless and untouched cities in the world - Fes El Bali (Old Fes) - the cultural heart of Morocco. The city is known for its enormous souks, historic leather tanneries, and for being a hotbed for culture and spirituality.

Start your visit with Batha Museum, home to an extensive selection of traditional Moroccan arts and crafts.

Many items were taken from historic buildings around the city. See intricate Berber rugs, old musical instruments, and delicate embroidery from the city. There's a large collection of ceramics, as well as beautiful zellige tile work, detailed wood carvings, and fine Tadelakt work.

Head to Madrasa Bouaanania, the most architecturally refined of Fes's theological colleges was built by the Merinid sultan Bou Inan between 1351 and 1357.

Beyond the massive brass entrance doors, its interior courtyard is a masterpiece of elaborate zellige tile work, carved plaster and beautiful cedar lattice screens. Smaller courts off either side functioned as classrooms, and students lived upstairs.

Your tour will also include; Bab Boujloud, Mellah, Jamaa Al-Karaouine the world's first established university, and One of Africa's largest mosques and possibly the oldest university in the world, this complex is the spiritual heart of Fes and Morocco itself, the Chaouvara tanneries; One of the city's most iconic sights (and smells), offering a unique window into the pungent, natural process of producing world-class leather using methods that have changed little since medieval times, clay workshops, artisan quarters, the souks of largest and oldest medina.

Next visit the Jewish Mellah, the name of a Jewish quarters located in the old cities of Morocco, usually with a walled boundary. Hear the ancient stories of the Jewish Mellah, explore historic synagogues, the Jewish Cemetery and Museum.

7:30 pm - Return to the hotel and freshen up then enjoy dinner at Dolce Vita Italian; enjoy Italian cuisine served Mezze-style. Enjoy traditional recipes with a modern flare and dine on our outdoor terrace in warm months.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 10: Monday, December 5, 2023 – Fes - Meknes - Fes

6:30 am – 7:30 am – Breakfast at the hotel

Depart the hotel and travel to Meknes, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the imperial cities of Morocco. Meknes is replete with fantastic historical sites, from minarets to museums, to enormous mosaic doors and royal golf courses. Among the most popular attractions are the Mausoleum of Moulay Ismail, the Nej Jardine Mosque and Grand Mosque (outside visit) as well as the Bab Mansour, Bab Lakmis, and Bab Berdaine gates.

Then explore the world of Moroccan wine with a wine-tasting tour just outside Essaouira at Domaine Zouina Winery. You'll find the French winemaker Christophe Gribelin and his beautiful vineyards and relaxing setting, an ideal lunch spot. Upon arrival, you'll enjoy a tour of the vineyards and impressive facilities where Christophe and his crew produce many ranges of wines: red, white, and rosé... Learn about the origins of grapes, what it's like to grow vines in Morocco, and how the production process works. Next, take your newfound knowledge and put it to the test with a wine tasting followed by a delicious lunch featuring local cuisine on the patio.

After lunch visit the Olive part of the farm. The Olive tree were planted to protect the vines from the capricious hot wind. Over 4000 trees are planted at the beginning of 20th century. The olives are harvested by hand, sorted and crushed cold within four hours of harvesting. After a short tasting, we depart for Fez. Arrive your hotel and spend the rest of the day leisure.
