Itinerary

Day 1: September 8 | Arrive Deer Lake – Corner Brook

Upon arrival at Deer Lake Regional Airport, the group will be transferred by private transport to Corner Brook, a picturesque city nestled between the Long-Range Mountains and the Bay of Islands. The scenic drive introduces travellers to Newfoundland's rugged western landscapes, with forested hills, waterways and coastal views along the way. Following hotel check-in, there will be time to settle in and enjoy the surroundings. In the evening, the group will gather for a welcome dinner featuring Newfoundland-inspired cuisine, before enjoying a relaxed first night on the west coast.

Overnight: Glynmill Inn (or Similar)

Meals: Welcome Dinner

Day 2: September 9 | Corner Brook – Gros Morne National Park – Bonne Bay

Following breakfast, the group will venture into the spectacular landscapes of Gros Morne National Park for a guided one-hour hike through the remarkable Tablelands. Accompanied by a knowledgeable local guide, travellers will learn about the unique geology of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, where exposed earth and rocky landscapes reveal the ancient history of the planet. The walk will be at a comfortable pace, with opportunities to appreciate the scenery and take photographs. Following the hike, enjoy a scenic water taxi experience before continuing to the shores of Bonne Bay. Here, the group will board a relaxing Bonne Bay cruise, taking in the dramatic coastal scenery, forested mountains and peaceful waters of this beautiful region. The cruise offers a wonderful opportunity to experience Gros Morne from the water while learning about the area's natural and cultural heritage. After the cruise, continue north to the charming community of Cow Head, where the group will check into their accommodation for the evening. After time to relax and freshen up, enjoy an evening at the Gros Morne Theatre Festival Music Hall, experiencing the lively sounds, stories and humour of traditional Newfoundland entertainment. This promises to be a memorable evening filled with local music and the warm hospitality that makes Newfoundland so special.

Overnight: Shallow Bay Motel (or Similar)

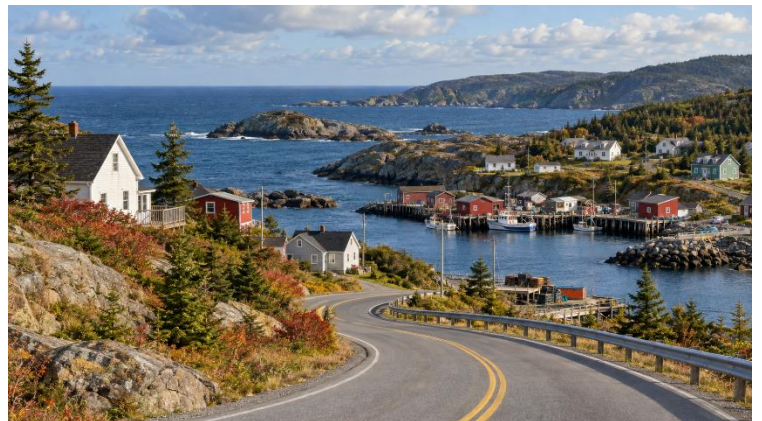

Meals: Breakfast, Packed Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: September 10 | Gros Morne – Scenic Coastal Touring – Gander or East Coast

Following breakfast, the group will continue eastward across Newfoundland, enjoying the changing scenery from the western mountains and coastal communities to the forested interior of the island. Enjoy a special farm and cultural experience, learning about the history of the pioneer families who settled the Upper Humber Land Settlement after the Second World War. The group will take part in a guided farm tour, explore the regenerative farming practices, and then enjoy a farm-to-table culinary experience featuring locally sourced ingredients and stories of the land. This provides a wonderful opportunity to meet local hosts and experience a more personal side of Newfoundland beyond the traditional sightseeing stops. The day is designed as a relaxed travel experience rather than a long list of attractions, giving guests time to enjoy the scenery and hear stories about Newfoundland's history, culture and way of life from their guide. In the early evening, arrive at Gander for a comfortable overnight stay and dinner.

Overnight: Sinbad's Hotel (or Similar)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: September 11 | Central Newfoundland – Trinity and the Bonavista Peninsula

After breakfast, travel toward the beautiful Bonavista Peninsula, one of Newfoundland's most scenic regions, known for its historic fishing villages, dramatic cliffs and charming coastal atmosphere. The group will visit the historic town of Trinity, where colourful heritage buildings, narrow lanes and a picturesque harbour create an authentic sense of Newfoundland's past. Enjoy a guided heritage experience with local storytelling, followed by time for lunch and exploring the village at a relaxed pace. In the afternoon, continue to the Bonavista area, with a stop at the rugged coastline and scenic viewpoints. The evening will feature a special group dinner with drinks, celebrating the region's seafood traditions and warm Newfoundland hospitality.

Overnight: Fisher's Loft Inn (or Similar)

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: September 12 | Bonavista Peninsula – Puffins, Coastal Scenery and Local Culture

After breakfast, depart for Elliston, one of Newfoundland's best-known puffin-viewing locations. Here a short walk leads to the dramatic coastal cliffs overlooking the Atlantic. In season, Atlantic puffins can be seen nesting remarkably close to shore, making this one of the most accessible land-based puffin experiences in Newfoundland.

Continue to Dungeon Provincial Park, a short drive away. Here, the group will see one of the peninsula's most unusual geological formations: a massive collapsed sea cave with two natural arches opening toward the Atlantic. A short walk from the parking area brings the group to the viewing area, making this an easy scenic stop while still providing a dramatic Newfoundland coastal experience. Continue along the scenic coastline to Cape Bonavista, stopping at the Cape Bonavista Lighthouse Provincial Historic Site. The iconic red-and-white lighthouse sits dramatically above the Atlantic and offers panoramic coastal views. The group will have time to explore the lighthouse and interpretation centre, hear about the region's maritime history and enjoy photographs from the spectacular headland. The group will then make its way into Bonavista for lunch at a waterfront restaurant located on Bonavista Harbour.

After lunch, visit the Ryan Premises National Historic Site for a guided heritage experience. This restored 19th century merchant premises tells the story of Newfoundland's cod fishery and the important role that the fish trade played in the development of Bonavista and other outport communities. Following the Ryan Premises, there will be some time to enjoy Bonavista's waterfront and historic streets before returning to Trinity for dinner and return to the hotel.

Overnight: Fisher's Loft Inn (or Similar)

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 6: September 13 | Bonavista – St. John's

After breakfast, depart the Bonavista Peninsula and travel toward Newfoundland's vibrant capital city, St. John's. Along the way, enjoy the scenic countryside and coastal landscapes as the group makes its way east. Upon arrival, the group will first visit Quidi Vidi, one of Newfoundland's most picturesque historic fishing villages. Nestled around a sheltered harbour, with colourful fishing stages, small boats, rocky hillsides and a distinctly traditional Newfoundland atmosphere. Here lunch will be enjoyed.

Next, a guided city sightseeing tour featuring the colourful houses of Jellybean Row, historic Water Street and to the waterfront. Continue to Signal Hill National Historic Site, where panoramic views of the harbour and Atlantic Ocean provide a memorable introduction to the city.

After hotel check-in, enjoy some leisure time before gathering for dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight: St. John's – Delta Hotel (or Similar)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 7: September 14 | Witless Bay Puffin & Whale Cruise – Coastal Culinary Experience

After breakfast, travel along the scenic Irish Loop to the coastal community of Bay Bulls, where the group will enjoy a memorable wildlife boat excursion. The cruise offers the opportunity to view Atlantic puffins, seabirds and whales, while enjoying the dramatic coastline of the Witless Bay Ecological Reserve.

Following the cruise, enjoy lunch, bring the wild to your table with thoughtfully foraged ingredients and creative, nature-inspired dishes, overlooking the reserve. Continue to Cape Spear Lighthouse National Historic Site, the easternmost point in North America, where dramatic ocean views and the historic lighthouse create a beautiful coastal experience. Arrive back into St. John's and enjoy the evening at leisure.

Overnight: St. John's – Delta Hotel (or Similar)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 8: September 15 | St. John's

After breakfast, the group will visit The Rooms, Newfoundland and Labrador's largest public cultural space, overlooking St. John's Harbour. The morning will begin with a private guided museum tour, giving the group an engaging introduction to Newfoundland and Labrador's history, people and culture. Focusing on the province's Indigenous and settler history, the cod fishery, outport life and the development of Newfoundland. Following the guided visit, allow time for guests to explore additional exhibits independently, visit the museum shop or enjoy coffee before returning to the hotel. The remainder of the afternoon will be at leisure in St. John's, giving guests the opportunity to relax, shop, explore the downtown streets or simply enjoy some free time before the final evening. In the evening, gather at the hotel for a farewell dinner in the hotel, offering a traditional Jigg's Dinner. The dinner will be enhanced by a local Newfoundland musician performing throughout the evening, creating an intimate final celebration of the group's time in Newfoundland.

Overnight: St. John's – Delta Hotel (or Similar)

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 9: September 16 | St. John's – Farewell to Newfoundland

Enjoy a final breakfast at the hotel before a transfer to St. John's International Airport for onward travel, bringing a memorable journey through Newfoundland's spectacular coastlines, puffin viewing, traditional music, regional cuisine and welcoming communities to a close.

Meals: Breakfast
