EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Jason Wilcox, CCIM

Partner

A Seattle native, Jason has more than 20 years in-depth experience in investment analysis and brokerage of commercial real estate investments. He offers a unique perspective to clients seeking to purchase, sell, or maintain commercial real estate assets. Jason views client relationships as a long-term partnership and is committed to providing his clients with insights and mentoring before and after each real estate transaction to ensure that they realize the maximum potential from their real estate investment portfolio.

He has successfully brokered a number of complex transactions, including the purchase and sale of troubled assets requiring lien holder and probate court approvals, as well as a variety of real estate transactions involving international investors. Jason also has expertise in self-storage facilities in western and central Washington. He was the former Argus self-storage representative for the Washington market and has brokered numerous self-storage transactions throughout Washington State.

An experienced owner and manager of a real estate portfolio since 1995, Jason joined the RE/Max Commercial Team in 2007 and then in 2013 became a founding principal of Raven Commercial Real Estate. His personal experience in building a multimillion-dollar portfolio from a single investment property is what allows him to consistently identify excellent investment opportunities.
