The Audubon Neighborhood Association (ANA) works to strengthen the quality of life and community resiliency for all in the Audubon Neighborhood by facilitating community engagement and relationships and helping all members of the neighborhood to thrive by fostering equitable economic and community development.

Part and Line Number: Part III - Line 28

Northeast Market Garden is a 1/2 acre lot that has been transformed into food production space for 6 emerging farmers and 4 teen interns. Our farmers grow food for sale and also for donation to local food shelves. The garden is also the location or our long-standing Audubon Farmers Market. The combination of growing space and a farmers market, as well as other community activities and gatherings has created a relaxing space for residents to come and enjoy flowers, food, and their neighbors.

Part and Line Number: Part III - Line 29

Audubon Spring Festival is an annual event held at the Audubon Park Recreation Center. Food, games, a variety of vendors and music all entice local residents to emerge from their homes after a long winter and engage with other community members. We typically have 800 to 1000 attendees, volunteers and other participants enjoy the early spring festival.

Part and Line Number: Part III - Line 30

Audubon Farmers Market is one of the neighborhood staples as we have been running the market since 2009. Now with its new location in the market garden, parents can relax and not worry about negotiating parked cars while at the market. They use our Power of Produce program where kids sign up to get a $2 token for produce every week. After the kids purchase their veggies and fruit, parents will frequently take the kids to learn and identify the veggies growing in the garden. We had 260 kids sign up this year.

Part and Line Number: Part V - Line 33

We leased a 1/2 acre from the City of Minneapolis to grow food for our by our emerging farmers. The space is called the Northeast Market Garden and accomodates farmers land for growing as well as 1/4 of the garden intended for our Audubon Farmers Market held every Thursday during the summer.
