Order:RESPONDENTS EMERGENCY MOTION FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ASSIST TO ENFORCE PARENTING TIME PURSUANT TO CRS 14-10-101 et seq, 14-10-129, 14-13.5-101 et seq, 14-10-129.5

The motion/proposed order attached hereto: SO ORDERED.

The Court has reviewed Respondent's Emergency Motion for Law Enforcement Assist to Enforce Parenting Time. A status conference will be held on the Motion on Wednesday, December 20, 2023, at 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom 1C. ALL PARTIES MUST APPEAR IN PERSON AND PETITIONER SHALL BRING THE MINOR CHILDREN TO COURT, unless the parties can arrange to exchange the children prior to court. The Court strongly prefers that the exchange happen prior to court to avoid exposing the children to court proceedings. If Petitioner has turned the minor children over to Respondent prior to the court appearance, then the parties may appear virtually. Respondent may designate third parties to conduct the exchange on his behalf.

If Petitioner fails to exchange the children prior to this court appearance, fails to bring the children to court, or fails to appear for court, the Court will entertain further argument regarding more drastic measures, such as issuing a warrant instructing law enforcement to take physical custody of the children.
