Our Story

In early 2020 a small group of theatre enthusiasts came together to establish Eagle's first community theatre. Our initial outreach meeting to gather support was held in September 2021. Sharing a common vision and passion, we met monthly, formed a Charter Board of Directors, filed as a non-profit, established bylaws and became a 501(c)(3).

Through community outreach at various City of Eagle events, interest and enthusiasm grew, volunteers were recruited and by May 2022, we launched a successful Charter Membership Drive reaching over 100 members. There was a resounding Yes! to starting a community theatre in Eagle.

In January 2023 Eagle Theatre Company (ETC) performed its inaugural production, "A Night of One-Acts" in the Black Box Theatre at the Eagle Performing Arts Center (EPAC) which we now call home.

We are so grateful for the support of our mission to bring quality, live theatre to Eagle. We look forward to renewing connections with members from past seasons and welcoming new members to our ETC ensemble. Please join us as we celebrate the opening of our 2024-2025 third season of shows!

Celebrate Our Successes

Our first full season of three productions was another smashing success with the majority of our shows selling out! ETC's first Staged Reading showcased an original work by local playwright, Cory Brestler, and was fantastic! The word is out...ETC is providing Eagle with excellent local entertainment!

Community outreach has continued with participation in Eagle Chamber of Commerce programs and City of Eagle events including showcases during Eagle Fun Days.

Our Membership is engaged and increasing, allowing us to meet our financial goals to continue to provide quality live theatre.

Thank YOU!
