

As of 8 a.m. Wednesday April 21, the entire province will be shut down for at least two weeks. During that time, tighter restrictions will be in place, which include closing all non-essential retail businesses.

However, Kelly's Creative Sewing will be operating behind closed doors during this time. We will be fulfilling your sewing needs and services on a curbside basis. You can place your orders by email or phone.