

Questions	Responses: Mike Britt, Candidate for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 4
1. Why are you seeking this office?	My decision to run was driven by a desire to serve my community and help maintain the balance of a civil society.
2. Please describe the qualifications and experience that make you the best candidate for this position.	For the past 20+ years I have worked in the area of conflict resolution as a claims adjuster, claims consultant, mediator, umpire and appraiser. I have worked most of the major, natural and manmade disasters in the US. Hurricanes, Tornados, Floods, Forest Fires, Refinery Explosions, and Plane crash. Despite the many litigated conflicts that resulted from these events. I have successfully negotiated and settle conflicts that range from thousands to millions dollars, and have never been deposed.
3. What is the one thing you would never compromise on?	I would never compromise on my belief of service before self.
4. What is the most important principle that guides your decision making?	As stated in Matthew 22: 37. My Family and I believe in our creators core values of Loving God and Loving your neighbors. We believe in the meaning of Love as stated in 1st Corinthians 13. My decisions should not bring harm to others.
5. Should JPs need to have law degrees? Why or why not?	No, because this is the people's court. In this court, any person can have a nonbiased third party, hear their complaints and help resolve civil conflicts.
6. What will carry the greatest influence in your rulings: criminal and/or civil case law, the Constitution, State statues, or other?	The Constitution because Freedom and Liberty matter.
7. Please explain your view of recidivism and how it affects the sentences you give.	A lesson not paid for is a lesson not learned. With repeat offenders, a harsher penalty may be warranted depending on the circumstances of the offense.
