I'm Cub. Let's start a club.

Duck will be in the club.

The club will meet in the tub.

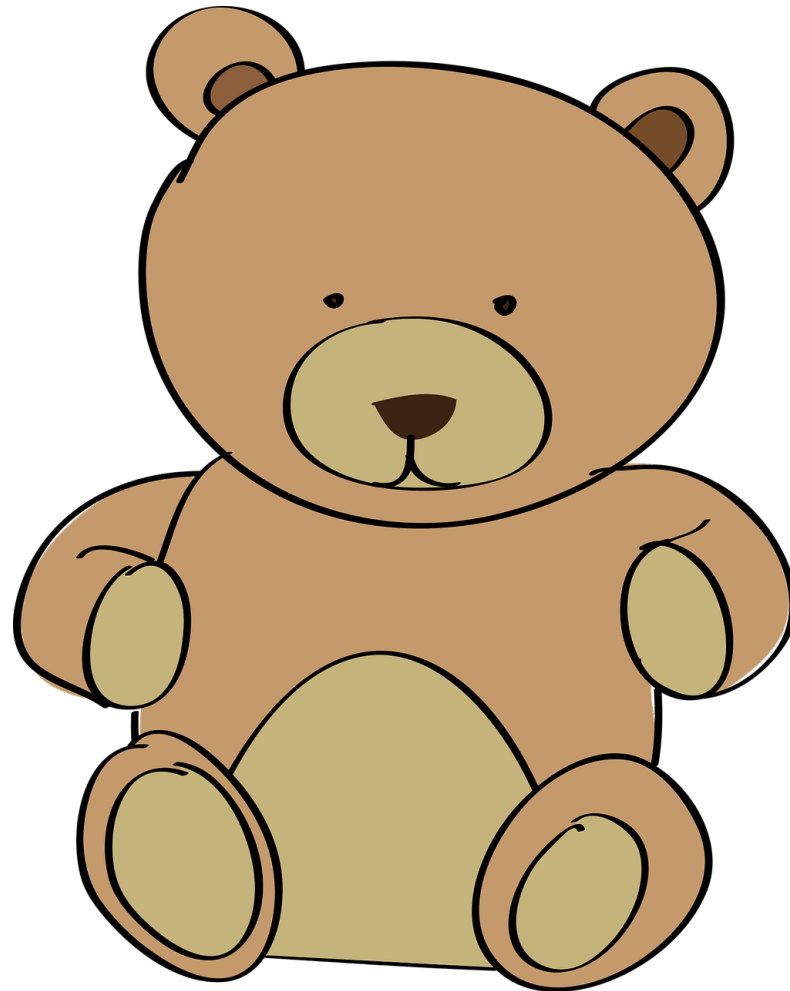

Uh-Oh. I lost Duck in the tub.
So much for our new club.

There's Duck!

Rub a dub dub. Time to scrub!

Will Cub start a club?

Bubbles!

A close-up photograph of a single, ripe strawberry. The strawberry is a vibrant red color and is completely covered in numerous small, clear water droplets of varying sizes. These droplets catch the light, creating bright highlights and giving the strawberry a fresh, glistening appearance. The green, serrated leaves at the top of the strawberry are also wet and covered in droplets. The entire strawberry is set against a solid, dark navy blue background. Scattered throughout the background are many small, out-of-focus water droplets, some of which appear as bright white circles, while others show more detail as they catch the light. The overall composition is centered, with the strawberry as the main subject.
