

PASTOR LINDA M. WILSON

Pastor Linda Wilson is a native Baltimorean born to the late Alice Elizabeth Barnes Johnson and the late Lawrence Milton Johnson. In June of 1977, Linda married Kermitt Glenford Wilson.

Pastor Linda conducts many fellowship meetings, conferences, and retreats. She also leads an “Internet Intercessory Ministry” for addressing immediate prayer needs throughout the world. This ministry has proven the words in James 5:16, “...The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.” Many individuals have received miraculous healings and deliverances because of the prayers of this group of saints.

Pastor Linda has received certification in witnessing through the Homes Missions Board of the Southern Baptist Church; counseling through Alpha Pregnancy Center; and training for evangelism through the Baltimore Baptist Association. She currently serves as a trustee for Nazareth Ministries of Colton’s Point, Maryland.

Together, Pastors Kermitt and Linda Wilson have committed to sharing God’s Word with a hurting and dying generation so that the people of God may live free, holy, and victorious lives. To accomplish this goal, the Wilsons co-founded Sharing God’s Word Ministries, Inc., a church that accepts all people just as they are.

Co-Pastor Wilson resides with her husband Kermitt in Randallstown, Maryland. They are blessed to have two adult daughters, two sons-in-law, and eight grandchildren.
