

PEACE

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” John 14:27 KJV

After a hard day at work, many transition from the chaotic day at the office over a glass of wine, beer or liquor. Some use marijuana, cocaine or crack. Some use sex or pornography to wind down. These things give the peace that the world gives. A false sense of peace. A forgery of the real peace. In this scripture, Jesus promises us the real peace. He tells us that the peace that He gives is not like the peace the world gives. He tells us that His peace is left with us. The peace in a bottle, a drug, or a sexual act is a short-term peace. It is never left with you, but instead leaves you. The peace of God never leaves, and because of this your heart will not be troubled or afraid. Let the peace of God that comes from trusting Him and studying His Word, be your sustaining power. After all, that’s why Jesus left it with you.

Co-Pastor Linda