

WHAT GOD THINKS OF ME

God has to think greatness of me, because he gave his life up for me to live day to day. But for him to continue thinking greatly of me, I have to obey and live my life the way he wants me to. Though sometimes I fall short when it comes to doing these things, God gives me chance after chance to repent (Ephesians 1:7 KJV) and because of this I know that he loves me very much. God has made plans for my life. Plans that are greater than I can possibly imagine. God has already set things in place for my future (Jeremiah 29:11 AMP) but it's up to me, to set goals and to accomplish them so I can take the road God wants me to take. God has set many obstacles in my life to see how hard I would push and how determined I would be to get over those obstacles. God has blessed me with a gift, but I am not sure what that gift is yet. I am sure he will reveal that gift to me when he is ready for me to share it with his people. I know he has blessed me with a gift, because he made me whole. God does not make you whole without a gift to share with the world.
