READERS TO DREAMERS

By connecting authors and illustrators with school students, we imagine a future where the readers of today become the storytellers of tomorrow.

CORPORATE PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Readers To Dreamers® is an Atlanta-based nonprofit organization dedicated to being the bridge between children's book authors + illustrators and local schools.

REPRESENTATION IN BOOKS MATTERS and school visits with authors and illustrators can motivate children to find their voice and tell their stories.

It wasn't until 2019 that I met a young Black author for the first time by the name of Nana Kwame Adjei-Brenyah and that's what made me realize that I could be an author too. People talk about representation, and I don't want it to get diluted and lost, because for me, it changed my life.
