

Zechariah's Silent Retreat Results in the Joyous Benedictus Blessings

Responding to Luke 1: 56-79

Seek God in stillness. Pick out a morning or evening. Turn off all media and be present with the Lord in adoration, prayer, and Scripture reading. Sit with Him and LISTEN. You will find new vision, new peace and a deeper relationship with God - the one God wants with you.

Let God redeem you. If you are living in any darkness or carrying baggage or sin, Jesus wants to carry your baggage and give you peace.

Just Ask:

Jesus, I am sorry for my sins. I choose to follow you. I make you the Lord of my life. Take all my shame and baggage and give me your peace.

Amen. HE WILL!

The Benedictus - Luke 1: 68-79

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel;
He has come to His people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty savior,
born of the house of His servant David.

Through His holy prophets He promised of old
that He would save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers
And to remember His holy covenant.
This was the oath he swore to our father
Abraham:

to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
free to worship Him without fear,
holy and righteous in His sight
all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare His way,
to give His people knowledge of salvation
by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God
the Dawn from on High shall break upon us,
to shine on those who dwell in darkness
and the shadow of death,
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be forever. Amen.
