

Welcome to 126 Genesis Media's Core Values!

We are excited to share with you the principles that matter most to us as we strive to provide high-quality multimedia services to our clients and customers. Our commitment is to continually improve and evolve in how we deliver our services to meet the ever-changing needs of God's people. These values form the foundation upon which we build our work and our community.

Core Values

Faith-Centered: We uphold faith at the heart of everything we do, inspiring and uplifting our audience through faith-based content.

Integrity: We commit to honesty, transparency, and ethical practices in all our endeavors.

Excellence: We strive for the highest standards in media production and delivery to provide top-quality content.

Community: We foster a supportive and inclusive community that connects people from diverse backgrounds.

Innovation: We embrace creativity and innovation to stay at the forefront of digital media.

Impact: We aim to make a positive difference in the lives of our audience by sharing impactful stories and content.

Collaboration: We believe in the power of partnerships and teamwork to achieve common goals.

Service: We are dedicated to serving our audience and partners with respect and dedication.

Diversity: We celebrate and promote diversity in our content and community.

Family: We believe family is the bond and foundation to life, work and success.
