To understand someone's range of capabilities, sometimes it is helpful to see a sample of what he has accomplished in the past. Here are some of the projects of which I am most proud. There are more! I love what I do and will talk about this for as long as someone wants.

“Build us a position description library.”

“Train our managers and specialists on HR things.”

“Design our organization and create our job descriptions.”

“Create new HR policy for us.”

“Help us implement Shared Services.”

“Help us recruit and fill positions.”

“Design a new HR program.”

“Evaluate our efficacy.”
