Consignment Agreement between _____ (Consignor) and HGHS – Chloe Slauenwhite (Consignee).

Consignment Period from _____ to _____

The Consignor grants the Consignee the right to sell the consignment commodities on behalf of the Consignor. The Consignee is likewise granted the right to display and sell the consigned commodities in a way the Consignee deems it best for consigned commodities to possibly be sold.

The ownership of the goods subject to the consignment belongs to the Consignor until these goods are sold and the ownership passes to the third party. The Consignor may come at any time during the Consignment Period and recollect any consigned item. A $2.00 per item stocking/inventorying fee will be charged. There is no charge to reclaim unsold consignment commodities at the end of the Consignment Period. The Consignee is not responsible for any consignment commodities lost, stolen, or damaged while in the Consignee's possession.

Unsold consignment commodities can be donated to the Consignee or held for pickup by the Consignor.

Unsellable consignment commodities due to content/condition/age will be put in the HomeGrown HomeSchool Summer Giveaway Days.

Please indicate below:

_____ DONATE all my unsold consignment commodities to the Consignee. (Most will be put in the HomeGrown HomeSchool Summer Giveaway Days)

_____ HOLD FOR PICKUP You will be notified at the end of the Consignment Period (one year and six months) that your unsold consignment commodities are ready for pickup. You will have 10 days (or an agreed upon time) to pick up the unsold consignment commodities. If unsold consignment commodities are not picked up by the agreed upon time, the unsold consignment commodities become the property of the Consignee.

Consignment Payout: The Consignor will receive 50% of the total sales of the Consignor's consigned commodities, less fees/taxes. Consignment Payouts will be sent via e-transfer or held for store credit/cash.
