

Reminiscere –
The Second Sunday in Lent

“Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David.”
Then Jesus answered her, “O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire.”

February 25th, Year of our Lord 2024

The Reverend William Foy, Pastor

About the cover art: Faith endures all, even presumed rebuke from the Lord. Rather, as can be seen here, Jesus puts her faith on display and praises it most highly. You see the skeptics on the right, their heads still covered in unbelief, separated from Jesus by a huge mountain, that of their unbelief. The scroll in His hand certainly tells us that He is the Word and by His “Word” alone sin is forgiven, lives are healed, demons are cast out. “Your faith has made you well!” For the faith that God creates by His Word, receives all that makes for life and salvation, the forgiveness of sin.

Invocation

P In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

Please Kneel/Stand

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

Absolution

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

Collect of the Day – Prayed by Pastor

O God, You see that of ourselves we have no strength. By Your mighty power defend us from all adversities that may happen to the body and from all evil thoughts that may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ,

Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

The Old Testament:

Genesis 32:22-32

The same night he arose and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and everything else that he had. And Jacob was left alone. And a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of the day. When the Man saw that He did not prevail against Jacob, He touched his hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with Him.

Then He said, "Let Me go, for the day has broken."

But Jacob said, "I will not let You go unless You bless me."

And He said to him, "What is your name?"

And he said, "Jacob."

Then He said, "Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with men, and have prevailed."

Then Jacob asked Him, "Please tell me Your name."

But He said, "Why is it that you ask My name?"

And there He blessed him. So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life has been delivered." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip. Therefore to this day the people of Israel do not eat the sinew of the thigh that is on the hip socket, because He touched the socket of Jacob's hip on the sinew of the thigh.

Gradual (Chanted by the Cantor)

Ps. 25:17–18

The troubles of my heart | are enlarged;*

bring me out of my dis- | tresses.

Consider my affliction and my | trouble,*

and forgive | all my sins.

Epistle

1 Thessalonians 4:1–7

Finally, then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more. For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness.

Please rise and face the procession as the Word of God enters into your midst.

(Chanted by the congregation.)

Oh give thanks to the LORD, for | He is good,*
for His steadfast love endures for- | ever!

Who can utter the mighty deeds | of the LORD,*
or declare | all His praise?

Blessèd are they who observe | justice,*
who do righteousness | at all times!

Remember me, O LORD, when You show favor to Your | people;*
help me when You | save them.

The Holy Gospel:

Matthew 15:21–28

Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and was crying, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely oppressed by a demon.” But He did not answer her a word.

And His disciples came and begged Him, saying, “Send her away, for she is crying out after us.”

He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” But she came and knelt before Him, saying, “Lord, help me.”

And He answered, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

Then Jesus answered her, “O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

down, we stand, Per - plexed by fears on ev - 'ry hand.

5 O from our sins, Lord, turn Your face;
Absolve us through Your boundless grace.
Be with us in our anguish still;
Free us at last from ev'ry ill.

6 So we with all our hearts each day
To You our glad thanksgiving pay,
Then walk obedient to Your Word,
And now and ever praise You, Lord.

Lent 2    Mt 15.21-28    Faith of Canaanite woman

Fish with cross            Ichthys is the Greek word for fish, and it was one of the most important early Christian symbols. The ichthys was taken as an acrostic for the Greek phrase “Iēsous Christos Theou Hyios Sōtēr,” which means “Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior.”

Our Lord said that to follow Him, we must all take up our own cross. For no disciple is above his master. We follow Jesus. In this fallen world there are many crosses. We are to bear our own, and to help others in their burdens. This is unnatural for us fallen men. We all seek to avoid pain and run to pleasure. But Jesus says that to follow Him means to bear the cross. That is because bearing the cross is an act of love and an act of faith: love because the Lord suffered for the sake of our sins, and faith because we trust that our suffering is part of a divine plan from which will come good, just as Jesus’ cross is – even though we cannot see the meaning behind our own crosses.

We do well to consider our own crosses and how we are bearing them. Are we embittered or angry? Are we jealous of others? Are we enraged at God? Do we see our own suffering as cosmic meaninglessness? Do we find ways to avoid our crosses and seek our own pleasure – even at the expense of others?

The cross is the most beloved symbol in the Christian faith, and for a very good reason. Without the cross, we remain in our sins. Without the cross, our suffering is truly in vain. Without the cross, there is no love for us, to us, or by us. But in the cross of Jesus, we have love, life, victory, hope, communion with God, and strength to face our own crosses. This is not to say that bearing the cross is easy. This is not to say the old slogan that ‘God won’t give you what you can’t handle.’ But rather, God has given us His Son, in love for us, so that we might conquer death and the grave, and ultimately, the crosses that we suffer are conquered in eternity. We may not be able to handle our crosses, but Christ has, does, and will until He returns in glory
