P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

Please Kneel/ Stand

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

Absolution

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

The Old Testament:

Ezekiel 37:1–14

The Hand of the LORD was upon me, and He brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones. And He led me around among them, and behold, there were very many on the surface of the valley, and behold, they were very dry. And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord GOD, You know." Then He said to me, "Prophecy over these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the Word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a sound, and behold, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. And I looked, and behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them. But there was no breath in them. Then He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath; prophecy, son of man, and say to the breath, Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live." So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off.’ Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves and raise you from your graves, O My people. And I will bring you into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O My people. And I will put My Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it, declares the LORD.”

Gradual - Chanted by the cantor

This is the day that the | LORD has made; *
let us rejoice and be | glad in it.
Let | Israel say, *
“His steadfast love endures for- | ever.”

The Epistle:

1 John 5:4–10

For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is He who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not by the water only but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the One who testifies, because the Spirit is the Truth. For there are three that testify: the Spirit and the water and the blood; and these three agree. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that He has borne concerning His Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning His Son.

Please rise and face the procession as the Word of God enters into your midst.

The Holy Gospel:

John 20:19–31

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, even so I am sending you.” And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld.”

Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into His side, I will never believe.”

Eight days later, His disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” Then He said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and see My hands; and put out your hand, and place it in My side. Do not disbelieve, but believe.” Thomas answered Him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen Me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

1 These things did Thom - as count as real: The 2 The vi - sion of his skep - tic mind Was
3 His rea - soned cer - tain - ties de - nied That 4 May we, O God, by grace be - lieve And warmth of blood, the chill of steel, The grain of wood, the read like braille The mark-ings of the spear and nail.

palms reached out And beck-oned Thom-as from his doubt.

Awake, my heart, with gladness

467

1 A-wake, my heart, with glad-ness, See what to-day is done;
2 The foe in tri-umph shout-ed When Christ lay in the tomb;
3 This is a sight that glad-dens—What peace it doth im-part!
4 Now hell, its prince, the dev-il, Of all their pow'r are shorn;

Now, af-ter gloom and sad-ness, Comes forth the glo-rious sun.
But lo, he now is rout-ed, His boast is turned to gloom.
Now noth-ing ev-er sad-dens The joy with-in my heart.
Now I am safe from e-vil, And sin I laugh to scorn.

My Sav-ior there was laid Where our bed must be made
For Christ a-gain is free; In glo-rious vic-to-ry
No gloom shall ev-er shake, No foe shall ev-er take
Grim death with all its might Can-not my soul af-fright;

When to the realms of light Our spir-it wings its flight.
He who is strong to save Has tri-umphed o'er the grave.
The hope which God's own Son In love for me has won.
It is a pow'r-less form, How-e'er it rave and storm.

5 The world against me rages, care is free, No trouble
Its fury I disdain; Though troubles me. Misfortune now bitter war it wages, Its work is is play, And night is bright as all in vain. My heart from day.

6 Now I will cling forever To Christ, my Savior true; My Lord will leave me never,
Whate'er He passes through.
He rends death's iron chain;
He breaks through sin and pain; He shatters hell's grim thrall; I follow Him through all.

7 He brings me to the portal
That leads to bliss untold,
Whereon this rhyme immortal
Is found in script of gold:
"Who there My cross has shared Finds here a crown
prepared; Who there with Me has died Shall here be glorified."

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER - John 20.19-31

Jerusalem Cross is an emblem of missionary work. The large center cross represents the original church in Jerusalem, The smaller crosses represent the Four Gospels in the Bible and the spread of the Gospel to the four corners of the earth to which Christianity has spread. The five Crosses symbolize the five wounds of Christ.

[The image of God] was lost through the fall into sin. When Adam and Eve sought to be like God, they lost the image that God had breathed into them. Sin had corrupted them in every way. They were no longer holy, spotless, or pure. They were now sinners, and death had entered them. And just like Adam's holiness was transferred to Eve, so their sin and death is transferred to all of their descendents. Their sinful nature corrupts all people.

If man were to be made holy again, it would be necessary for the Son of God to be sent as the Mediator, as true man. It would be necessary for the lost blessings to be won again for the whole human race through the suffering, death, and resurrection of God as man. The image of God would once more have to be renewed in us. This is the great, overwhelming grace and mercy of God. He is born of the Virgin Mary and restores to us again what He first gave Adam in creation— His very image. And He re-creates us in a very similar manner as the first creation, through means, through mysteries, through breathing. That is what happened on that night in the locked upper room. The glorified Jesus is re-creating His scared disciples and breathing into them the image of God.

Just as the sacraments are tied to the death and resurrection of Jesus, so is the Office of the Holy Ministry. He consecrates His disciples to preach, teach, and administer forgiveness on that Easter evening. It is through the Office of the Ministry that God restores and renews the lost image of God in His people. And this is accomplished through the Holy Spirit that was breathed and proceeds from the Father and the Son. He did not give them the Holy Spirit for their sakes alone, that evening. He gave them the Spirit so that they could go forth, convert people to God, make children of God and heirs of eternal life through faith, recreating us in His image. St. Paul says in 1st Cor. 15, that just as we bear the image of the man of dust—sinful Adam, so we too, will bear the image of the Second Adam—Jesus (v. 45)

THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EASTER (ALSO KNOWN AS THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER)

The first Sunday after Easter has several names. The Octave of Easter or the Octave Day of Easter may refer to the eight-day period (Octave) from Easter Sunday. The name Low Sunday is said to be derived from its relative unimportance after the solemnities of Passion Week also known as Holy Week, which culminates on The Feast of the Resurrection of our Lord or Easter.

In reference to the Easter Season, Low Sunday is also known as the Second Sunday of Easter, and among Eastern Christians as St. Thomas Sunday because of the Gospel Reading where Christ appears to Thomas the Apostle on the eighth day after the Resurrection.

Traditionally, those who had received their baptismal gowns, after being baptized on Easter, would wear them until this day. The official Latin name is “Dominica in albis [depositis],” which is “Sunday in [Setting Aside the] White Garment.”

Antipascha, (Pascha means Easter), and Renewal Sunday are other names by which this Sunday is known. Among Eastern Christians, Thomas is not so much remembered as “doubting Thomas,” but is rather remembered for his confession of faith, “My Lord and my God,” thus being the first to publicly proclaim the two natures of Christ: human and divine. The latter name indicates the celebration of the Resurrection is repeated and renewed.

“Quasimodo Sunday” comes from the first two words of the Introit, 1 Peter 2:2, which speak especially to those baptized at Easter. “Quasi modo geniti infantes,” “As newborn babes, alleluia, desire the rational milk without guile.” As mentioned earlier, it is the day the newly baptized officially put away their white robes.

The entire week from Pascha (Easter) to Thomas Sunday is known as Bright Week and is considered to be one continuous day. On a literary note, Quasimodo, the protagonist of the 1831 French novel, Notre Dame de Paris, by Victor Hugo was found abandoned on the doorsteps of the Notre Dame Cathedral on the Sunday after Easter.
