

A HOWLER GUIDEBOOK TO FREE MONTGOMERY

What's my favorite flavor? Free. So why not check out some of these free places to visit in the Gump.

Alabama Department of Archives and History

Home to the Museum of Alabama, this is the only site in the state that covers Alabama history from prehistory to the modern day. It is also home to the state Archives, and it's research room.

624 Washington Ave.
Montgomery, AL 36130

Hyundai Motor Manufacturing Factory Tour

Did you know you can go see where they make all the cars? Just a quick jaunt down the interstate at that massive plant? Well you can! And they don't even charge. You just have to make a reservation online is all.

700 Hyundai Blvd
Montgomery, AL 36105

Center for the Study for Civil Rights and African-American Culture

Located on Alabama State University this research center holds a collection of cultural documents, artifacts, and other memorabilia focused on the Civil Rights Movement and African-American Culture. It's focus is on Montgomery specifically.

1345 Carter Hill Road
Montgomery, AL 36101

The National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Legacy Museum

This site commemorates those Black lives lost to lynching. The Legacy Museum two blocks away shows the history of slavery and racism in America. THIS IS TEMPORARY! You still have to reserve tickets however.

417 Caroline St
Montgomery, AL 36104

The Georgine Clarke Alabama Artists Gallery

You can find it located at the offices of the Alabama State Council on the Arts in the RSA Tower in downtown. Inside you will find art showcased from a variety of Alabama artists.

201 Monroe St., Suite 110
Montgomery, AL 36104

The Mooseum

Making its second appearance in one of our guides this place is, remarkably, free. Featuring all you could ever want to know about the Alabama cattle industry.

201 South Bainbridge Street
Montgomery, AL 36102

Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts

If a museum full of fantastic art isn't enough, why not then take some time in Blount Cultural park where this is located. Go feed some geese. Wander the garden. Take your dog to the dog park.

1 Museum Dr.
Montgomery, AL 36117

The Alabama State Capitol Building

While the inside is full of history to be seen, don't forget to walk the grounds and see all the monuments, such as the Moon Tree which we've mentioned before. Just pick a day that isn't too hot or wet.

600 Dexter Avenue
Montgomery, AL 36104
