"Participant.." In addition to the individual Participant identified above, the term "participant" in an equine activity has the meaning as defined in Chapter 87, Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, sec 87.001 ("aperson who engages in an equine activity, without regard to whether the person is an amature or professional or whether the person pays for the activity or participates in the activity for free").

2. "Equine Activity." The Term "equine activity" has the meaning as defined in Chapter 87, Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, sec 87.001, and includes, but is not limited to, the activities in which Participantengages with respect to the riding, handling, training, instruction, showing, and boarding of horses, ponies, or other equineanimals, whether at astable, trail riding,, horse show, competition, or other equestrian event.

3. WARNING

UNDER TEXAS LAW (CHAPTER 87, CIVIL PRACTICE AND REMEDIES CODE), AN EQUINE PROFESSIONAL IS NOT LIABLE FOR AN INJURY TO OR THE DEATH OF A PARTICIPANT IN EQUINE ACTIVITIES RESULTING FROM THE INHERENT RISKS OF EQUINE ACTIVITIES.

4. Inherent Risks. Participant, and if Participant is a minor Participant's parent or guardian, understand that there are risks inherent in dealing with horses, ponies, and other equine activities. For example, Participant understands that some but not all of the inherent risks Include:
 - A. The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, death, or loss to a persons on or around it.
 - B. The unpredictability of an equine animal's reaction to sounds, sudden movements, unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals.
 - C. That there may be certain land conditions or hazards, including, but not limited to, surface or subsurface conditions.
 - D. The possibility of a collision with another equine, animal, person, or object.
 - E. The potential of an equine activity participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury, death or loss to the person or property of Participant or to other persons, including, but not limited to, failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the participant's ability.
5. Examples. Participant, and if Participant is a minor Participant's parent or guardian, further understands that examples of the equine activities encompassed within the scope of this voluntary waiver and release agreement include but are not limited to
 - a. Riding, lessons, showing, competitions, trailriding, exhibitions, and the like, in any equine discipline including dressage, reining, and eventing.
 - b. Training, teaching, instructing, and evaluation activities, both of the rider or handler and the equine.

- c. Riding, handling, showing, or competing an equine belonging to another, without regard to whether the owner receives money or other things of the value for its use.
- d. Routine care, feeding, and handling of the equine, including veterinary and farrier care.
- e. Transportation, loading, and unloading of equines.
- 6. Voluntary Waiver and Release: With full understanding of the inherent risks involved in equine activity, some of which have been described in Paragraph 4 above, Participant, and if Participant is a minor Participant's parent or legal guardian, voluntary agrees to waive, release, and hold harmless Goslin Nix Equestrian Center from all tort and civil liability arising from or related to participation in equine activity. This agreement to waive, release, and hold harmless includes not only Goslin Nix Equestrian Center, but its officers, employees, agents, apprentices, and independent contractors, whether they be trainers, veterinary personnel, farriers, equine care providers, and the like.
- 7. Protective Headgear Warning: Participant, and if Participant is a minor Participant's parent or legal guardian acknowledge the he / she / they have been fully warned and advised by Goslin Nix Equestrian Center that participant should purchase and wear an ASTM certified equestrian riding helmet while riding and handling equines.
- 8. Governing Law: This voluntary waiver and release agreement is made and entered into, and shall be governed by and interpreted, under the laws of the State of Texas. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be null, Void, or voidable under the applicable law, the remainder of the Agreement shall survive intact.
- 9. Final Agreement: Participant, and if Participant is a minor Participant's parent or guardian, agrees that he / she / they have been given sufficient time to read, understand, and ask questions, if any, concerning the Nature and scope of this voluntary waiver and release agreement.
