

BYRON REESE

Introduction

Updated 06-2022

Our next speaker is many things:

An entrepreneur who has started, grown and sold multiple companies;

a technologist who holds several patents;

an author who has written a half-dozen books that have been translated into a dozen languages;

and finally an optimist who believes humanity's best days will soon be here.

He graduated from Rice University in 1991 and married his college girlfriend.

They've been based in Austin, Texas for a quarter of a century and together they homeschooled their four children from K-12.

When he isn't working on their 1880s home, he finds inspiration for his writing by traveling to far-flung locations, perhaps the most notable being frequent trips to North Korea.

Please help me welcome
