

JESSE LEBEAU

Introduction

Updated 06-2022

Our next speaker was born on a little Alaskan island with no roads or stores.

Growing up he was told he was too small and not good enough to play basketball, and that he should choose a more realistic path.

Now, after being featured in shows, commercials and movies - all based on his ability to play basketball - he can confidently say:

There is no such thing as an unrealistic dream.

He has spoken on stages to over 1 million people all over the world about how he went from overlooked to overbooked, dribbling his way onto the Hollywood big screen.

He now stars on the new Emmy nominated TV Sitcom 'This Just In' AND spent a full day hand-feeding cheeseburgers to a supermodel.

Please welcome to the stage

Jesse LeBeau!
