

Michelle Stacy | Intro

If you've brushed your teeth, shaved, or had coffee today, our speaker today, Michelle Stacy, has likely touched your life.

She helped grow Keurig from a $200 million business to $2.5 billion, reshaping how the world enjoys coffee. Before that, she spent over 25 years leading innovation and growth at Procter & Gamble and Gillette, building iconic brands and high-performing teams.

Today, she advises organizations at the board level — including iRobot & Skullcandy— on leadership, engagement, and sustainable growth.

Michelle brings real-world strategy and leadership insights to organizations ready to unlock their people's full potential.

Please join me in welcoming Michelle Stacy.