

Ventilation Schemes

Certificate of Assessment

Awarded to: Anton Marku

Certificate
No: 0006283

Date of issue: 17 November 2022

For successfully passing the following assessment in accordance with appropriate regulations and legislation:

Category :

● Grease Hygiene Technician

GHT02

Expiry date:

16/11/2027

(see explanatory notes on categories, see overleaf)

For and on behalf of Building Engineering Services Association Training

Helen Yeulet- Director of Training

BESA Training puts learning at the heart of building engineering services

Piper Training Ltd, trading as BESA Training is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Building Engineering Services Association (BESA).

BESA retains the right to withdraw or suspend certification if the holder is found to have obtained certification fraudulently or has been reported as not carrying out work in accordance with appropriate regulations & legislation.

An appeal process is available to all certificate holders.

Explanation of Ventilation Schemes

Certification of natural persons

1. Grease Hygiene Operative (GHO01) – For personnel who carry out the cleaning of grease extract systems. The course offers training and assessment in the knowledge, skills & behaviours required to safely clean grease extract systems and associated components.
2. Grease Hygiene Technician (GHT02) – For personnel who carry out the cleaning of grease extract systems. The course offers training and assessment in the knowledge, skills & behaviours required to safely clean grease extract systems and associated components, carry out pre & post clean testing & reporting and site person in charge responsibilities.
3. Air Hygiene Operative (AHO01) – For personnel who carry out the cleaning of general ventilation systems. The course offers training and assessment in the knowledge, skills & behaviours required to safely clean general ventilation systems and associated components.
4. Air Hygiene Technician (AHT02) – For personnel who carry out the cleaning of general ventilation systems. The course offers training and assessment in the knowledge, skills & behaviours required to safely clean general ventilation systems and associated components, carry out pre & post clean testing & reporting and site person in charge responsibilities.