Spring Newsletter 2021

Meet our new giving partner for 2021!

Helping Hand Me Downs enhances the quality of life for children and families in the St. Louis area by meeting their immediate needs, then connecting them with life-changing resources that foster independence.

By providing a one-stop shop for the social workers, nurses, and moms, HHMD helps streamline the resources and the overall experience for the families. The goal is to exceed their expectations, build trust and maintain a long term relationship that allows them to migrate from recipient to donor/volunteer.

Goodbye Matt, Hello Tracey!

Happy 2 Give is saying goodbye to one of our board members and hello to another. After five years of hard work and dedication, Matt Ramshaw is stepping down from the H2G executive board. Over the years, Matt was responsible for putting together our newsletters, securing sponsorships and donations, and pitching in at events. Best wishes Matt, you'll be missed!

Tracey Hinrichs will be filling his spot on the board. She has worked with H2G in the past, and we're excited to see how her energy and passion can impact our mission in the future. Welcome Tracey!

New Arrival!

Congratulations to last year's giving partners and friends of Happy 2 Give, Joe and Lauren Walsh, on the birth of their beautiful new daughter Lindsay! From the looks of things, Landon is pretty excited to be a big brother!
