MEANING OF SOCIAL CHANGE

- Social change is way human interactions and relationships transform cultural and social institutions over time, having a profound impact of society. ...
- Society is the net-work of social relationship. Hence, social change obviously implies a change in the system of social relationship.

DEFINITION OF SOCIAL CHANGE

- Sociologists define social change as changes in human interactions and relationships that transform cultural and social institutions.
- According to Gillin and Gillin - We may Define Social Change as Variation from the Accepted modes of life.
- Kingsley Doris "By social change is meant only such alternations as occur in social organization i.e. the structure & functions of society".

Why Do Social Change Occurs ?

- There are numerous and varied causes of social change. Four common causes, as recognized by social scientists, are technology, social institutions, population, and the environment. All four of these areas can impact when and how society changes. ... Modernization is a typical result of social change.
- Social change often occurs when individuals decide to work towards a common goal.

Explanations of social Change

- There's no questioning the fact that ideas of social change are very complex. Therefore, it can be helpful to break it down into different explanations. Sometimes, explanations of social change cannot be looked at as one. This is because there are different working parts of social change that often seem to come together, but first we need to understand each part on its own.

SPENCERS THEORY ON SOCIAL CHANGES

SPENCER AND THE THEORY OF EVOLUTION

SYSTEM	ANIMALS	SOCIETIES
Regulative System	Central nervous system	Government
Sustaining System	Giving/receiving nourishment	Industry (jobs, money, economy)
Distribution System	Veins and arteries	Roads, transportation, internet, etc.

Social Changes Advantage

- Social change is pretty unique to humans. Due to our biology and ability to adapt, learn, and be flexible, especially as our environment changes around us, we are able to continuously inspire social change, even if we initially cause it. Hence, the changing social order.

Impact of Education On Society

- While there are various factors that can facilitate social change, education is the most universally accepted method.
- This can be attributed to the fact that education is probably the only method of social change that eradicates ignorance, others facilitate it. For instance, take an example where social change is brought about by either a new authoritarian/dictatorial government or influence from a superior nation that a normal state looks up to. In the first case, the society is coerced to submit to the new social changes by use of force and fear.

Indian Philosophers View's on Social Education

- “It is impossible to think about the welfare of the world unless the condition of women is improved. It is impossible for a bird to fly on only one wing.” — Swami Vivekananda
- The striking thing about this quote is how Swami Vivekananda tries to promote the case of equality for woman.- Social Change
- In the constitution of our country, women are given equal rights and have the liberty of exercising their franchise and working wherever they want but the reality is adrift of it.- Social Justice

Summary

- There are numerous and varied causes of social change. Four common causes, as recognized by social scientists, are technology, social institutions, population, and the environment. All four of these areas can impact when and how society changes. And they are all interrelated: a change in one area can lead to changes throughout. Modernization is a typical result of social change. Modernization refers to the process of increased differentiation and specialization within a society, particularly around its industry and infrastructure.

The image shows a presentation slide. The background is a light green color with a pattern of faint, overlapping hexagons. On the right side, there is a white rectangular area with a thin black border. At the top of this white area is a solid dark grey rectangle. Below this, the text "THANK YOU" is written in a bold, green, sans-serif font. At the bottom of the white area, there is a thick, solid green horizontal bar.
