

Imam Hussain Sayings

"To me, death is nothing but happiness, and living under tyrants is nothing but living in hell."

"Among the signs of ignorance is arguing with irrational people."

"One who reveals your faults to you like a mirror is your true friend, and one who flatters you and covers up your faults is your enemy."

"A person who considers you his friend will always stop you from doing anything bad, however, a person who considers you an enemy will always persuade you to do bad."

"Beware that the need of people to you is among the blessings of God to you. So do not scare away the needy people when they come to you, as God's blessings will return and go elsewhere."

"Among the signs of a learned man are criticizing his own words and being informed of various viewpoints."

"Seeking knowledge will lead you toward wisdom and elevation."

"Kindness elevates human beings, and faithfulness is a sign of decency."

"The aim of my revolution is to reform society and revive the true teachings of Islam."

"The most generous person is the one who offers help to those who do not expect him to help."

"Wars can be won by using guns and violence, but hearts can only be won through strong character and pure manners."

"One should decrease his wishes and whatever he has in his hands should be enough for him to be satisfied."

"Death with dignity is better than life with humility."