

Cobra Board

Arm positioning Device

The Cobra Board is a arm positioning device that prevents arm drift during left radial artery procedures.

The carbon fiber base plate fits between the procedural table and mattress. The cuff is positioned to hold the left arm in position to allow access the radial artery.

Prevents arm drift

High Tensile 12" gooseneck design

Carbon fiber base plate

Comfortable and ergonomic cuff

Prevents arm movement during procedures

Item number CBR-004

01925 387 121

Info@onetwomedical.com

Onetwomedical.com