It is understood that this contract is binding on both parties. It cannot be altered or changed unless agreed to in writing by both the Client and the Contractor. Cancellation of the contract by the Client is possible if Contractor is notified in writing not less than 90 days before the service date. Cancellation within this time period will result in the refund of all payments, less deposit, unless otherwise noted. Cancellation by client after 90 days will result in credit being given towards a future event based upon Contractor's availability. This contract with the Contractor to perform as listed shall be excused by detention of Contractor by sickness, accidents, acts of God, and acts of terrorism, adverse weather or any other legitimate circumstances beyond the Contractor's scope of control. In the unlikely event that the Contractor is unavailable to appear, the Contractor will make every effort to find a qualified replacement at the agreed upon fees. Should the Contractor be unable to find a replacement, client will receive a full refund. In the unlikely event that the Contractor does not start on time due to traffic delays, vehicle issues or the event is interrupted during the event due to audio/visual equipment malfunction (other than electrical power issues), the Contractor will refund the portion of the fees paid prorated to the time lost. Client agrees that in all circumstances the Contractor's liability will be limited to the performance fee as stated on the Contractor's contract and that the Contractor will not be responsible for indirect or consequential damages.

The Client shall ensure that: (1) event facility provides Contractor with an area approximately 5 x 15 feet within 25 feet of a 110-volt outlet (3 prong grounded) (2) event facility is accessible for equipment set up at least one and a half to two hours prior to scheduled start time (3) event facility meets all federal and state safety regulations (4) reasonable steps will be taken to protect Contractor's equipment, personnel, and music (5) for outdoor performances, adequate shelter (waterproof tent with available walls) will be provided that completely covers and protects the Contractor's equipment from adverse weather conditions.

If Client is obtaining electrical power from a portable generator or using a long run extension cord from a main power source; Contractor shall not be held responsible or liable for any audio/visual issues that may occur due to power spikes, power surges or total loss of electrical power. If audio/visual issues do occur or DJ equipment is damaged as a result of the aforementioned; and issues cannot be resolved by either Contractor or Client, Contractor reserves the right to discontinue performance if necessary. The Client agrees to maintain a safe environment so as to protect the Contractor's equipment from theft, vandalism and harm as well as any threat of harm to the Contractor. The Contractor has the right to stop any performance and take necessary steps to ensure the safety of himself and his equipment, up to and including removing himself and the equipment from the performance venue. The Contractor will approach Client to intercede if any problems develop and will only leave if the problem cannot be corrected to the reasonable satisfaction of the Contractor. Client is responsible for any and all damages caused by the client and/or the client's guests.

The Contractor has the right to print, publish and use any digital media, and/or other material generated during the course of the event as promotional items for trade show displays, photo album displays, demo videos and web site displays UNLESS initialed by the Client here _____. Initialing here prohibits the Contractor from using any material from the event for promotional purposes.

The Client agrees that this contract shall be governed by laws of the State of Maine and County of Somerset. In the event of a suit involving or relating to this agreement, the Client agrees that the venue for the suit will be in the County of Somerset, State of Maine. In the event that legal action is taken by the Contractor to enforce this agreement, the Client agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and interest to the Contractor. In the event that the client takes legal action against the Contractor, the Client agrees to pay all reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Contractor unless the Client is awarded a judgment against the Contractor.

This contract contains all the fees, terms, conditions and provisions agreed upon by the Client and the Contractor and no other agreements or contracts, oral or written, regarding the subject matter of this contract of performance for the event stated on this contract unless agreed upon in writing by both the Client and the Contractor shall be deemed to exist.
