

Billing Policies

Due at time of service

- Payment in full is due at the time of service.

Forms of payment

- We accept payment by cash, check, and credit card.

Returned check

- We reserve the right to charge a processing fee for a check returned for insufficient funds.

Insurance

- We do not accept payment from insurance companies or other third-party payers.
- We can help you file for out-of-network reimbursement from your insurance company.

Missed appointment

- Payment in full is due for any missed appointment.
- We may elect to excuse a missed appointment for illness, family emergencies, and other reasons, at our discretion.

Late arrival

- A late arrival to an appointment is considered a missed appointment.
- Arriving more than fifteen (15) minutes late to an initial consultation is considered a late arrival.
- Arriving more than ten (10) minutes late to a follow up appointment is considered a late arrival.

Overdue balance

- We reserve the right to charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid thirty (30) days after initially billed.

Collections

- We reserve the right to recover accrued interest, court costs, and attorneys' fees in connection with the exercise of legal remedies to collect overdue accounts.
 - These rights and remedies are in addition to all other rights and remedies available at law for recovery of unpaid fees.

Medicare

- Under Medicare billing rules, Medicare beneficiaries are not able to file for reimbursement for services rendered by providers outside of the Medicare network.

No refunds

- Fees are for professional services of medical evaluation and treatment recommendations.
 - Fees are based on time allotted and complexity of care.
 - Payment of fees does not guarantee that a particular medication will be prescribed or particular course of treatment followed.
 - Payment will not be refunded because a client or prospective client is not satisfied with the treating psychiatrist's medical recommendations.
