Visit Phi Phi Island Tour

The trip to Phi Phi Island will then begin.

Enjoy the Phi Phi Island Tour, a Thai island group located between the major island of Phuket and the Thai coast of the Malacca Strait.

Krabi Province governs the islands administratively.

The islands are usually reached by speedboats or long-tail boats from Krabi town or docks in Phuket Province.

During the late 1940s, Muslim fishermen settled on Phi Phi Don, which later became a coconut plantation.

The name Phi Phi (pronounced 'phi-phi') is Malay in origin.

Pulau Api-Api ('the fiery isle') was the ancient name for the islands.

The name is derived from the Pokok Api-Api, or 'fiery tree' (grey mangrove) that grows on the islands.

Evening return to the hotel.

Overnight: Phuket

After breakfast day at leisure on your own or take an optional tour to Elephant Care Sanctuary Activities at additional cost.

Learning, feeding, walking, bathing, and playing in the mud with these gentle elephants is truly an unforgettable experience you won't ever forget! Our heartfelt mission is to "rehab" disabled, elderly, and commercial elephants from a long life of unfair trade labor.

Once you arrive to the camp, you'll get a chance to see these majestic animals up close and personal.

You can feed and bathe these gentle creatures amidst some of the most breathtaking nature scenes you will ever see with your eyes! The elephants enjoy being loved, walked with, spoken to, bathed in mud spas, and pampered so much.
